Experiment Station Men Adjourn

The annual conference of Experiment Station workers adjourned yesterday afternoon, and last night the visiting superintendents and scientific assistants returned to their homes. Director Youngblood said that the conference was the most successful in the history of the Experiment Association.

Attention, New Ross Volunteers.

Please give two dollars ($2.00) either to A. D. Bruce, S. P. McFadden, or P. G. Haines, before Monday night, January 30. You can help us by doing this voluntarily, as we haven't time to see you during examination. The money must be collected by Monday night.

Arrangement Committee,

A. D. Bruce,

S. P. McFadden,

P. G. Haines.

Preliminary Announcement.

Registrar Friley has begun the preparation of the Annual Preliminary Announcement bulletin which will be explanatory of the work to be given here next year. The bulletin will carry a number of cuts depicting college life.
