Trial begins for '86 murder of executive

AUSTIN (AP) — The capital murder trial of Ricky Lee Green begins Monday in the 1986 castration and stabbing death of a Fort Worth television advertising executive in 1986.

Green, 29, also faces capital murder and murder charges in three other killings in 1985. His wife, Sharon, was convicted in February in one of those cases — that of Betty Jo Monroe, an Amarillo topless dancer.

Green, of Azle, has been jailed in lieu of $1.25 million bail. His trial was moved to Austin on a change of venue because of extensive pre-trial news coverage. Jury selection began July 23.

In Mrs. Green's trial, defense attorneys portrayed her as a battered wife who assisted her husband in the Monroe death because she was too frightened to defy him.

Police have said Green's two male victims lived in Fort Worth. Green will be tried first in the death of Steven Fefferman, 28, an executive of KXAS-TV.

In December 1986, police found Fefferman bound to the posts of his bed with neckties. He had been castrated and stabbed several times.

MY FAVORITE MODEL? CABRIOLET.

Fashion Design senior Gerardo Cantú's 1988 Volkswagen Cabriolet fits him perfectly.

"As the creator of a line of women's clothing called 'Fashion Panic', I'm always driving my lovely six-foot fashion models to shows and photo shoots.

"In my Cabriolet, all of us fit comfortably. There's room for cameras and tripods. And we look fabulous."

If you're ever at the University of Texas in Austin, look for Gerardo driving his Cabriolet. He'll be the guy with the well-dressed ladies – riding in style.

Experience all the Fahrvergnügen and convertible fun of Cabriolet at your Volkswagen dealer.
