Channel 15 Highlights

FROM JUMPSTREET: Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The Blues: Country meets City. Blues artists Willie Dixon, Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee perform and talk with host Oscar Brown, Jr. about the growth of the Blues.

VIKINGS: Saturday at 8 p.m. From the Fury of the Northmen examines the Viking society of Denmark, which produced some of the most beautiful art and jewelry of the so-called Dark Ages.

MATINEE AT THE BIJOU: Saturday, 9 p.m. Hopalong Rides Again. William Boyd and Gabby Hayes star in this 1937 classic western. Boyd stars as the hero, Hopalong Cassidy, who fights the cattle rustling "bad guys," but of course still manages to find time for a little romance.

PRESENTE: Saturday at 10:30. Puerto Rico: Our 51st State. Puerto Rico is currently a commonwealth of the United States. The case for continuing commonwealth status is examined, and the other two options: statehood or independence, are also examined, and the present and future political options are analyzed.

COSMOS: Sunday at 7 p.m. Heaven and Hell features the temperature of the planet Venus. Cosmos is the brainchild of astronomer and writer Carl Sagan. Sagan serves as the "tour guide" to take viewers on a voyage through the cosmos.

SUNDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL: Sunday at 8 p.m. Delayed telecast of Saturday's Baylor-Texas A&M game.

UPDATE A&M: Tuesday at 1 p.m. Informative and entertaining coverage of Aggies and their accomplishments.

NOVA: Tuesday at 7 p.m. Portrait of a Killer offers a photographic examination of the causes and effects of more than half the annual deaths in the United States: heart attack and stroke.
