Reagan rating up in poll

United Press International

WASHINGTON — More Americans approve of President Reagan's job performance than disapprove, but a majority does not believe he should serve a second term, a new nationwide poll shows.

The New York Times-CBS News survey released Sunday reported 47 percent of the 1,365 people interviewed said they approve of Reagan's overall job performance, while 39 percent disapproved. That was a reversal from a January survey when 41 percent approved and 49 percent did not.

But only 42 percent said "yes" when asked if Reagan has done well enough to merit re-election in 1984, while 51 percent said "no."

The poll also asked Democrats to rate the party's prospective 1984 candidates, with Sen. John Glenn of Ohio edging past former Vice President Walter Mondale.

Glenn was viewed favorably by 53 percent and unfavorably by 11 percent. Mondale got an unfavorable rating from 19 percent, and a 51 percent favorable reaction.

One surprising figure emerged when Democrats were asked about potential 1984 candidates. Black civil rights leader Jesse Jackson turned up a 23 percent favorable rating, placing him ahead of Sens. Alan Cranston of California, Gary Hart of Colorado and Ernest Hollings of South Carolina.

With the president still apparently undecided about his plans for a second term, the survey is likely to reinforce worries in the White House about the "gender gap," in which women disapprove of Reagan in greater numbers than men.

For overall performance, 57 percent of men endorse Reagan, but only 39 percent of women. On Reagan's foreign policy, there was an 18 percent disparity between the sexes, an percent difference on en policy.

Among women surve percent fear Reagan wil United States into war, cern shared by 31 per men.

Forty-nine percent said Reagan's policie helped the economy, w percent said they had h 51 percent said they do lieve the recession is ove

Reversing a negative ment in a mid-April poll, cent approved of the pres conduct of foreign policy percent disapproved.

More death row inmates than ever

United Press International

WASHINGTON — At the end of 1982, there were more state and military prisoners on death row, 1,056, than ever before in American history, the Justice Department says.

The report by the Bureau of Justice Statistics said Monday the record figure reflects an increase in the number of sentences in recent years and the effect of many lengthy appeals.

The number includes 1,050 state prisoners, including 13 women, on death row and six men under the death sentence in military facilities.

More than two-thirds of the total were in the southern states. Only one northeastern state, Pennsylvania, held prisoners on death row. Thirty-seven states have death penalty laws, and 31 states held condemned prisoners last year.

Some 264 people were sentenced to death in 1982, an cent increase over the nu condemned in 1981. The number of sentences were ed down in California and ida, each with 39, follow Texas with 28 and Alabam 20.

The number sentenc death during the year was er than in any other year 1975.

Two men were executed ing 1982, one in Virgin one in Texas. So far this one man was executed in A ma, bringing to seven the ber executed since 1976.

An execution was se Monday in Mississippi, federal appeals court iss stay, which the state has three Supreme Court justi lift.
