

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II. College Station, Texas, Friday, November 3, 1916. No. 37.

Changes in Teaching Force.

According to a recent press report the following additions and changes in the A. and M. College teaching force, for the current year, were confirmed by the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of President Bizzell:

T. F. Mayo, assistant professor in the department of English; H. F. Page, assistant professor in the department of English; C. H. Tarr, assistant professor of biology; W. D. James, assistant professor of electrical engineering; Henry T. Dysland, assistant professor of architecture; W. A. Broyles, assistant professor of agricultural education; H. C. Yingling, instructor of entomology; E. R. Bowersox, instructor of mechanical engineering, and C. A. Berg, assistant instructor of agricultural engineering.

Bat. Notice.

There will be an important meeting of the Battalion editorial staff in the chapel of the Y. M. C. A., immediately after dinner today. All company reporters be present. J. B. Joyce.

All boys from Fayette county meet in room 49 Leggett immediately after dinner today.

Y. M. C. A. Pool Open Only to Members.

Until further notice, the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool will be open to Y. M. C. A. members only, as follows:

From 1 to 6 p. m. for underclassmen.

From 6.30 to 9.30 for seniors.

Swim limited to half an hour.

Each member must furnish his own towels.

A permanent schedule will be published later.

S. H. HICKMAN,
Supt. of Building.

Guard Detail.

November 4, 1916.

Officer of the Day:

Cadet Priv. Moreland, B. G.

Officer of the Guard:

Cadet Lieut. McDaniel, G. E.

Dissecting Sets Here.

All students in Biology courses not supplied with dissecting sets and lenses must procure these before next practice period.

Dr. BALL.

North Texas Club Meeting.

There will be a regular meeting of the North Texas Club in the pool room of the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 1 p. m.