

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II. College Station, Texas, Saturday, November 4, 1916. No. 38.

Science Seminar.

The second meeting of the Science Seminar will be held in Room 307, Academic Building, Monday evening, November 6, at 7:40. All members of the College and Station staffs and all graduate students are cordially invited to be present.

Ag. Engineering 15 and 55.

Students desiring to make up work either in theory or practice may do so, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

LEROY RHODES

Guard Detail.

November 5, 1916.

Officer of the Day:

Cadet Capt. Metcalfe, S. L.

Officer of the Guard:

Cadet Priv. Montgomery, R.

Johnson County Club.

There will be a meeting of of Johnson County boys in 54 Milner tonight, immediately after supper. Every member be there. Something special!

LOST—A "Forage Crops and Their culture" and a Wooley's "Handbook of Composition." Liberal reward for the return of these books to No. 7, Ross Hall.—W. J. Ray.

Football Here Saturday.

The A. and M. freshmen team will meet the Kirkley School, from Greenville, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock on Kyle field. Kirkley is supposed to have a strong team.

The results of the Rice game will be received, play by play, at the grounds also.

"Billy" Vandergraff, of Alabama, a disciple of Tubby Graves, and an All American tackle, will give some exhibition work in kicking.

Texas U. vs Missouri U.

The Longhorn team of Texas University has gone to Columbia, Missouri, to play the Missouri Tigers. Tomorrow morning's Bulletin will probably give the score.

Someone has borrowed from me the "Quarterly of Economics" for February and May. Please return them at once. These magazines belong to the College Library.—L. H. Huebner, Mitchell 62.

The sophomores can now obtain their Sunday School books, "Willman's Men of the Old Testament," by calling at the library.