

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II College Station, Texas, Tuesday, November 14, 1916. No. 45.

Call for Recommendations.

The attention of all field officers and captains of organizations is called to circular posted on Bulletin Board No. 1, calling for recommendations for appointment of N. C. O.'s, which must be submitted by 8 a. m., November 16, 1916.

C. H. MULLER,
Commandant.

Mr. Mayo Tutoring for Mr. Bible.

Thomas F. Mayo, assistant professor of English at A. & M., will have charge of Mr. Bible's tutoring during the latter's absence. At Oxford, where Mr. Mayo is a Rhodes Scholar, every student in the University has a tutor.

The Thanksgiving reception and ball at the State Capitol at Austin will be free to A. and M. cadets and faculty members. University students and resident alumni will be required to pay $2.00 each.

FOUND—In Waco a bunch of keys belonging to someone at College Station. Ring had one lab. key No. 151 and three others attached. Call at 20 Mitchell.

C. B. Norwood.

Total Receipts at Baylor, $8900.00

The A. and M. share of receipts at Baylor was $4722 21. The total amount of ticket sales was $8900.00.

Military Science Lesson.

The lesson in Military Science for week of November 13 is from Part II, page 487, to paragraph 549, page 491, Moss Manual.

Anyone wishing to buy reserve seats for himself or a friend, for the A. and M. - Texas game, may do so, as sale is now open to the public. Sale of seats in rooters section will be announced later.

Dr. A. B. Ray, associate professor of Chemistry, has been sick for a week or more. Other instructors in the Chemistry Department have met his classes.

LOST—A bundle of laundry, with mark J15. Please notify W. O. Jones, 74 Leggett.

LOST—A black fountain pen with piece of copper wire on safety. Please return it to 74 Leggett.

LOST—A Solid Geometry. Please return it to 82 Milner. Has L. E. Peacock's name in it.