

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II. College Station, Texas, Thursday, November 23, 1916. No. 53.

Special Train Coming to Game.

A special train of rooters from Dallas will arrive on the H. & T. C. at 1 p. m. today to attend the game between A and M. and Dallas University. Among the visitors will be several young ladies. The Athletic Council requests that all cadets who have not classes at the one o'clock hour go down to the station to meet the train.

The football game will start at 4 p. m. All guards, ticket men, et., are to report at 3:30 promptly.

Interest in Turkey Day Contest.

Read the Daily Texan. It is full of news of Thanksgiving plans. Every story in the Texas daily, whether on politics, music or social life, in some way refers to the Thanksgiving game.

That means that they are instilling fight into their team—and that Texas is going to be "powerful" hard to beat.

Must Have Tickets for Thanksgiving Hop.

Those who expect to attend the Thanksgiving Hop, Friday night, December 1st, must have tickets in order to be admitted.

C. O. DENNING,
Ch'rm'n, Finance Committee.

Pay Checks Before Austin Trip.

Heads of Departments are requested to hand their monthly payrolls to the Business Manager not later than the 27th of November.

Student payrolls will be issued this month on Nov. 28th.

Regular monthly pay checks will be ready for payment on Nov. 29.

This special service is being rendered in order that "funds" will be available for those who are planning to go to Austin.

W. WIPPRECHT,
Business Manager.

Rooters' Tickets to Seniors First.

Sale of tickets for rooters' section of the A. and M. Texas game will be open to seniors at 1. p. m. Saturday. Further announcements in regard to rooters' ticket will be made in the Friday Bulletin.

The Turkey Trot Club will meet in 102 Leggett immediately after supper tonight. Boys from DeWitt College present. J. B.

A letter, addressed to Wiess, 1316 Calder Avenue, Mont, Texas, is held at the campus post