

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II. College Station, Texas, Friday, February 9, 1917. No. 109.

State University Men Favor Military Training.

"Optional Military Training is favored by the male students of the University of Texas," according to an early vote taken by the Daily Texan. The poll will be completed this week.

The Texan is asking for an "honest opinion" on optional, compulsory, two year compulsory, or no military training. It is explained that the present agitation had its beginning before the break with Germany

Noted Lecturer Here Tonight.

Tonight at the Main Auditorium students and other College Station people will have the rare opportunity of hearing Seumas MacManus, the poet story-teller and author of international reputation. The MacManus lectures have been received with enthusiasm by College people throughout the United States and Canada.

The lecture tonight will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and will begin at 7:30.

Main Auditorium Admission twenty-five cents.

The Baylor College Glee Club (twenty-five girls) will visit College one week from tonight.

Mayor Lindsley's Visit to College Postponed.

Mayor Lindsley, of Dallas, who was to have visited College Station today has postponed his visit for a week or two. He will address the cadets and campus people on February 22, probably, but the date is not certain.

Notice to Campus Residents.

The Steam Plant will not be able to furnish stove wood to the campus residents during the remainder of this school year, as the supply is very low. Please make arrangements to secure your wood elsewhere.

H. E. SMITH,
Supt. Power Plant.

A. and M. Freshmen will play Houston High School at the gymnasium on Saturday night February 10, at 7:45. This promises to be one of the best games on the Freshman schedule this year. Your coupon book will admit you.

All seniors or others who expect to teach next year and are interested in coaching positions or in positions where coaching will be expected of them, please call at my office or mail me a note to that effect. W. L. Driver.
