

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II. College Station, Texas, Saturday, February 17, 1917. No. 115.

"21 to 7" Placed in Cornerstone.

At the laying of the cornerstone of the Education Building at the University of Texas the legend "21 to 7" was placed in a brass box and deposited with other relics. The Texan says that "A. and M. may brand the Longhorn steer, but they will need a little dynamite and a Sherlock Holmes detective agency to touch this sacred relic."

Play Rice Monday and Tuesday.

Monday and Tuesday night A. and M. basketeers meet Rice Institute at the gymnasium. These games will probably settle the State championship. If A. and M. wins both, that practically insures the honors for the cadets. The games will begin at 7:45.

Junior Military Science.

Next lesson in Junior Military Science is same as previous lesson, scale problems.

Furniture and fixtures for the College Club have arrived. The floor will be polished and just as soon as that is completed, the informal opening of the Club rooms will be held. Present indications are that the Club rooms will be an exceedingly attractive place for loafing and games.
