

Guard Detail.

For February 18, 1917.

Officer of the Day:

Cadet Priv. Foster, W. C.

Officer of the Guard:

Cadet Lieut. Flack, E. K.

Will whoever left a box of minerals on my desk call and see me? One specimen is probably of value.
J. B. OVERSTREET.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I have received a new shipment of Mexican Pecan Candy. — Heine, No 7 Ross.

WANTED—A regulation cap. I need it badly. Milner 56.

No Stag Dance.

On account of the Baylor Girls' Concert, there will not be a stag dance tonight.

Edwin Clapp and
Bostonian Shoes

Men's Underwear
and Neckwear

Edwin Clapp and Bostonian Shoes

WEBB BROS.

Bryan

Brandon

$4.95

Just received a shipment of Regulation
Army Shoes
in all sizes, at $4.95

Brandon & Lawrence

Again!

The 13 to 0 Steer.

A clear cut photograph of the most famous steer in Texas has been secured. You should have some of these pictures. They relate history. Send them to your friends. Samples are being brought around.

"Snap Shot Bill."

FOUND A pin bearing the inscription, "C. M. A., '09". Was picked up near the Interurban freight house. Apply to Joe Kearney, main building janitor.

Take advantage of every opportunity to hear men like United States Commissioner Howe. Such lectures and addresses are educative in themselves.