

Smith is now acting adjutant for the S. T. D.

Whitfield to Powell, E.—That fellow must like to blow his horn, he gets up and blows it before breakfast.

It is said that Capt. Barnes, M. E., has applied for the position of cash-boy in a certain dry goods house in Bryan.

Scherer is going to peddle fruit in the vicinity of College Station this summer.

Capt. Martin, having received orders from headquarters, will depart and join his regiment in the T. V. G., where he will doubtless win great fame.

Lieutenant Bretschneider is much pleased with his picture.

Miss Nellie Smith visited College during the month.

It is said that our new, lazy drum-major looks for frog "stools" at guard mount.

Cadet Cain has been elected 1st lieutenant of the Hutton Guards. Kuhl, 1st sergeant.

Who is captain of the S. T. B. of Austin Hall?

The sleepers of Austin Hall were disturbed the other night about 12 o'clock by Corporal Shaw posting his relief.

Go to Robson for society notes; Peter Crow for war news.

It is said that McComick has never been convinced.

Rose—"Girls, now is your chance."—New York Journal.

At the last meeting of the 1st class war was declared, and hostilities began immediately. The table was turned over, also the slop bucket. Captain Newton was left prostrate on the floor.

Miss Friley of Bryan was a visitor of the college during the month.

Miss Melgaard of Brazoria is now visiting the college.