PLANS FOR DALLAS TRIP ARE ANNOUNCED

GREAT PLANS BEING MADE FOR ENTERTAINMENT OF CORPS—C. I. A. WILL AID IN CHEERING.

"We're Dallas bound—900 strong." Such is the slogan of our honorable yell leader and his assistants. The trip this year promises to surpass all previous ones, and no one should miss this opportunity to have the time of his life and support the team in one of the best and hardest games of the season. The Dallas A. & M. Club is sparing neither time nor money in preparation for the entertainment of the corps.

Lieut. Hill and Dr. Bizzell returned a few days ago from Dallas, where they have been making preparations for the coming of the corps on next Saturday. A definite program has not been arranged as yet, but substantially the plan is this: The corps is to leave College Station at 9:30 Friday night on a special train going straight thru to Dallas, arriving there at 7 o'clock the next morning.

We will get off at Commerce street and march to what is known as the H. & T. C. Park, where we have breakfast; then after breakfast, a short parade uptown, where we take special cars for the Fair Grounds. There meal tickets will be issued, guns will be stacked and we will be dismissed until 11 o'clock that night. Pretty soft, isn't it? This will give every one about twelve hours to see the fair and Dallas, and say, fellows, this Dallas is "sure some town"—at least that is what Runt and Kike say, and that settles the question.

Our team goes up against one of the strongest football machines in the South next Saturday, and it needs the support of every man in the corps. L. S. U. is coming back strong this year and expects to make up for that memorable game at Houston last Thanksgiving. It may be of interest to observe that our old friend "Red" Rice, is with L. S. U. this year, although ineligible to play this year.

The best portion of the stands has been set aside for the A. & M. students and alumni. Megaphones will be given out at the Fair Grounds and the A. & M. rooting section will be marked off clearly. Every cadet should get in this rooting section, so that we can give the people of Dallas a real exhibition of "the old pep," for which A. & M. is famous. C. I. A. will be close by to root for the A. & M. team and give inspiration to their "brothers and cousins."

The cost of the trip is comparatively small; the fare is $3.50, which includes a sleeper both ways, meals, etc. Students will be given a special rate to the game, so every man should be able to go. But if you cannot go, you can do the school and the team a favor by talking the trip up. At least if you haven't enough college spirit to support the trip remain silent and let the other fellows enjoy it.

SWIFT HASKELL BRAVES TAKE FARMERS' SCALP

A. & M. ELEVEN MEETS DEFEAT IN FORT WORTH AT HANDS OF CELEBRATED HASKELL INDIANS.

In the hardest fought game of the season A. & M. was defeated by the Haskell Indians by a score of 10-0. If luck had been with the Farmers instead of with the Indians, the score would have been 7-3 in favor of A. & M. In the second quarter the Indians made a goal from placement. Later on in the second quarter they made a touchdown, when an A. & M. back missed his signal and an Indian recovered it and ran for a touchdown. Notwithstanding the fact that we were defeated, the Farmers put up the best game of the season and proved conclusively that we have a real football team. The Indians were the first ones to cross our goal line, and from the present prospects it looks as though they will be the last ones to do it. The Farmers fought hard, and several times they got dangerously near the goal line, but it seemed as though something happened every time to keep us from scoring.

For the Farmers Everett was undoubtedly the star of the game. In fact, Everett was the shining light of the whole game. His line plunges and end runs were always good for long gains. He out-ran the fleetest of the Indians, and several times he almost got away for a touchdown. Scott played the best game he ever played, and that is going some. The way he ran the team surprised everybody, and on returning kicks he was unbeatable. Johnnie Garrity was in the play every time, and wherever the ball was Johnnie could be found. He broke up a number of their plays before they got fairly started. Braumiller and Settegast lived up to their reputations by keeping the A. & M. line air-tight. Once the Indians had the ball on the one yard line, but were unable to go thru either side of the line and the ball went over on downs. Almost all of the Farmers' line plunges went thru Nick, and he always had a hole opened for the man with the ball. Cawthon played his old reliable game at center. Bell played a good game, too. In fact, the whole team played first-class football.

The Indians played their old game of clean, fast football. The way they ran thru broken fields, sidestepped and dodged, was splendid. However, the most striking feature of their playing was their kicking. They could kick placement goals from practically any part of the field, and one of their punts was good for 73 yards. The stars for Haskell were Powell and Artichoker. Their kicking and running were equally good.

E. N. HENLEY RECEIVES UNEXPECTED GIFT

The same affable manners which once made E. N. Henley popular with the young ladies of the campus seem to have also made him popular with the freshmen in "E" company. Last Saturday he was surprised by being presented with a French ivory set of military brushes and comb by the "E" company "fish," who had learned that he was about to leave us and wished to do something to show their appreciation of him. We understand that his father's family is going to move to California and that is his reason for withdrawing from college.

A MISUNDERSTOOD EXPRESSION.

Patterson was putting up the mail in the postoffice one morning, when Mrs. Johnson entered the office for her mail. Just then Pat's roommate, who was at the postoffice window, said, "Pat, give me my letter." Pat's face was almost in Mrs. Johnson's box when he replied, "Get out of here, old woman, there's not a thing for you."

Edgar Van Hutton was in Fort Worth to witness the game there and will be in Dallas until after the L. S. U. game to study exhibits and transact personal business.
