S. I. A. A. LOSSES A. & M. COLLEGE

No Reason Assigned for Withdrawal. Will Play Remaining Games Scheduled.

Texas A. & M. has withdrawn from the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. No reason for its withdrawal was assigned.

In withdrawing the authorities at A. & M. signified their intention of leaving in good standing, and explained that they fully intend carrying out all obligations set forth in their contract. They will play all games remaining on their 1914 schedule.

EVENING CLASSES IN GERMAN FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

Mr. F. W. Redlich will offer a practical course in the study of the German language, beginning early in November.

This method will not require the use of a text book and will be so arranged

FARMERS' OVERWHELM LOUISIANA TIGERS

TEXANS CRUSH L. S. U. BY LARGEST SCORE IN MANY YEARS. PELICANS AHEAD AT END OF FIRST HALF.

Texas A. & M. defeated Louisiana State University in Dallas by the score of 63-9. However, the score is in no way characteristic of the game, as it was the hardest fought game of the season. In fact, when the first half was over, the score was 9-7 in favor of the Pelicans. As the field was as hard as a rock, playing was both difficult and dangerous. However, this did not prevent the players from making spectacular plays during the whole game. The score was the largest the Farmers have rolled up in several years.

The feature of the game was the work of Everett. His end runs were the best ever seen in Texas. His speed was a surprise even to those who knew him. His broken field running was perfect. He even out-doged the Indians. Every time he carried the ball he would gain from ten to forty yards.

Bell played a wonderful game on the defensive and in the last part of the game he played quarterback in a manner that could not be beaten. His kicking was the best he has ever done. On the kick-off he always sent the ball for fifty yards and once it went over the line after it had been touched by a Louisiana man, and netted A. & M. two points.

Scott played the same old game, calling the right signals at the right time, and carrying the ball himself for long gains. Garrity was in it all the time. He carried the ball for longer gains, and the way he would break up the interference and get his man seemed impossible until it was done. Coleman seemed to have the Pelicans' number also. He was a good ground gainer and he kicked the goals perfectly.

In the first quarter A. & M. kicked off, the ball changed hands several times, and then the Pelicans made a touchdown on a forward pass and kicked goal. A little later on in the quarter L. S. U. got two more on a safety. The quarter ended with the score 9-0.

The course, while not being strictly elementary, will provide for the limitations of the beginner and is so arranged as to offer advantages to students in more advanced work.

For further information kindly communicate with Mr. Redlich.

A. & M. started off strong in the second quarter. Everett got away and made forty yards before he was stopped by the last man between him and the goal line. Then a forward pass failed, and the ball was brought out to the 20-yard line. L. S. U. kicked. Everett made a 20-yard run. Then, after several line plunges Everett made a touchdown. Coleman kicked goal. When the half was over the score was 9-7.

In the third quarter L. S. U. kicked off. Everett made a 20-yard run. Then, after a series of line bucks, Bell carried the ball over. No goal. Score: A. & M. 13, L. S. U. 9. Bell kicked off. An L. S. U. man touched the ball and then it rolled over the line, where an L. S. U. man fell on it, counting as a safety. Score: A. & M. 22, L. S. U. 9. Coleman passed 25 yards to Garrity, who would have made a touchdown had he not been barred out of bounds on the 5-yard line. Coleman kicked goal. Score: A. & M. 29, L. S. U. 9.

The fourth quarter was a run-away. A. & M. had the ball. Coleman passed 30 yards to Garrity, who ran for a touchdown. Coleman kicked goal. Score: A. & M. 36, L. S. U. 9. A. & M. kicked off. A. & M. got the ball on a kick. Then, with the ball on the 30-yard line, Everett went 30 yards for a touchdown. Cawthon kicked goal. Score 43-9. Bell kicked off. L. S. U. kicked. Coleman returned the ball 45 yards. An L. S. U. man intercepted a pass by Rollins and carried the ball to the 35-yard line. Then Rollins intercepted an L. S. U. pass and ran 65 yards for a touchdown. Coleman kicked goal. Score 50-9. Bell kicked off. A little later, with the ball in the middle of the field, Everett made 45 yards and on the next play he carried it across. Coleman kicked goal. L. S. U. kicked off. Everett made 40 yards. Then Rollins gained 20 yards. Then Everett passed to Rollins, who carried the ball over. Bell missed goal. Score 63-9. End of game.

I pine not to bring others woe—
I trust I'm not so mean;
But I would like to swat the bo
Who calls a girl a "queen."

I pine to see no injured gink
Clutch at himself and wail;
But I'd like to boot the cruel galoot
Who calls a girl a "frail."

ENTIRE CORPS ATTENDS FAIR

LEAD TOURNAMENT PARADE

Last Friday night at about 10 o'clock the larger part of the corps—probably 700 cadets—rolled out of College bound for Dallas on a special train composed of thirteen cars. At 10:30 "taps" was blown and the boys settled down for a good night's rest preparatory to the day of pleasure that was to come on the morrow.

When morning came the cadets found themselves near the H. & T. C. depot in Dallas. As soon as they had alighted from the train they were formed in companies and marched a short distance to the H. & T. C. park, where they were breakfasted on coffee and sandwiches.

At 9 or earlier the parade thru the city began. The crowd which lined the streets was not as large as usual, but it was nevertheless frequently necessary for officers in charge to give "Right by squads" to avoid collisions with street cars and other obstructions along the route. If the city of Dallas wants the parade of the cadet corps to be a parade it should have the streets cleared for that purpose. After the parade free and very welcome transportation to the fair grounds was furnished to all cadets.

When the cadets began arriving at the fair grounds they found the iron fence lined on the inside with C. I. A. girls looking for their "cousins and brothers." But when the boys had marched in and been drawn up in military formation on the lawn, they found a disappointment in store for them in the information that they must stand in ranks for an indefinite period until the "regulars" got ready to begin their tournament, the parade of which the cadets were to lead. This disappointment was all the keener because of the fact that, 600 C. I. A. girls were standing but a few feet away eagerly waiting for the corps to be dismissed.

While this wait was going on, free tickets for two meals were distributed to each cadet.

Some time after 11 the regiment was set in motion in the direction of the grandstand, before which it later paraded at the head of the column of soldiers. This parade was quite a pretty sight and created much favorable comment.

Following this the corps was dismissed and admitted free to the grandstand, from which position the boys watched the soldiers maneuver. The various companies had their "stunts" down to perfection, and it was a great treat to watch them. This exhibition ended about 1 o'clock.

During the game in the afternoon the cadets did some vociferous cheering, and between the halves pulled off a snake dance. The first stunt in
