seasons. Prior to coming to A. & M., Karow served as head baseball coach for one year, and assistant backfield coach at United States Naval Academy for two years.

Joining the Aggie staff in January, 1938, Karow served as backfield and head baseball coach. When Hub MacQuillan, head basketball mentor here left for T. C. U., Coach Norton immediately shifted Karow as head basketball coach and gave the baseball duties to Trainer Lil Dimmitt.

Upset Rice

His first year as cage mentor produced a team that sprung the biggest upset of the year when it defeated the conference co-champions—the Rice Owls—early this year. His other games were close and exciting and provided the sports fans here one of the most thrilling basketball seasons in many a year.

Since his coaching career, Marty has helped develop some of football's greatest backs such as Dandy Dick Todd, John Kimbrough, Walemond Price, Jim Thompson, and Marion Pugh—all Aggies, and such stars as Harrison Stafford and Ernie Koy from Texas University.

ing the trip. He will use his own equipment which he has had with him in all matches since he started shooting in competition 11 years ago.

Except for matches similar to the one to be fired this week-end the Rifle Team has closed its season. The undefeated Rice Institute R.O.T.C. Rifle Team lost to the Cadets last week by a margin of 137 points. The Aggies also defeated the Austin Rifle & Pistol Club by 327 points and the Montana State University team by 65 points.

In 12 weeks of record firing the Aggies shot against 56 schools and defeated 38 of them for an excellent average of 73%. The Fish team won eight of nine matches. Lieut. C. A. Williams, C. of E., who coached the squad, assisted by Sergeants Coyen and Beatty, are to be complimented for the excellent work they did with the team this year. Despite the handicaps of poor lighting and ventilation facilities the Aggie Rifle Team may be justly proud of their 1942 season.
