Seniors Elect Committee of Five to Name Ten Seniors for National Honors

Class Elect Committee of Five to Name Ten Seniors for National Honors

Ten outstanding Texas A. & M. students will be selected to represent the college in the 1945 National Agricultural College and University. The committee was named by a committee vote of the Student Council. The committee consists of W. F. Moore, first-year student; J. R. Karskey, Bob Zevny, and Charlie West, who were chosen by the faculty at the time by vote of the council.

Kiwians Club Will Sponsor Business Men’s Civic Group

A meeting of College Station business men will be held Monday, June 18, to gain the betterment of the business men of the community. The meeting was called by Edwin McMillan, president of the Kiwanis Club of College Station, and is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of College Station. The meeting will be held in the Kiwanis Club of College Station, and is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of College Station. The meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the Kiwanis Club of College Station.

Extensions Service and College Mourn Death of Johnson

Laverne L. Johnson, who had been a member of the Extension Service, work with Texas A&M College since 1933, died in a Bryan hospital Monday afternoon, October 22, 1945, at the age of 60. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Extension Service and was active in the work of the college. She was one of the first women to work in the Extension Service.

Stage Show to be Wednesday Feature

By J. F. Sprague

A popular comedy, featuring its zany and enthusiastic cast, will be presented by the students of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. The cast will be made up of students of the college and will be directed by the resident director of the college. The show will be presented at the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at 8 p.m.

Johnny Spragins to Edit Summer Bant

John F. (Johnny) Spragins, L. M. student and member of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, was elected editor of the summer edition of the college newspaper, The Texas A&M College. Spragins was appointed editor of the newspaper by the college administration. Spragins is a member of the college and is a student of the college.

What a Lot of Hay These Buildings Would Hold...

Lack of Girls, Aggie Traditions, Kindness to Dogs Astound Frogs

By M. C. Kuykendall

A newly arrived country boy in the city, frequently amazed by the size of things in Texas, has been startled by the size of the buildings in the city. The little boy was amazed by the size of the buildings, and the size of the buildings made him wonder if he was in a city or a country town.

Johnny Spragins to Edit Summer Bant

Johnny Spragins, a student of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, has been elected editor of the summer edition of the college newspaper, The Texas A&M College. Spragins was appointed editor of the newspaper by the college administration. Spragins is a member of the college and is a student of the college.

Kearby, Benson, Hargard, Will Lead Class of 1947 Through Summer

Junior Class Elects King As President

At a meeting in the "New Y" Room, Thursday afternoon, June 14, 1945, Bob King was elected as president of the college, and the outgoing president, J. F. Casey, was elected as vice-president.

According to Howard McMillan, a member of the senior class, the meeting was called by the senior class officers, who stated that the senior class was ready to elect a new president.

The meeting was called to order by the senior class officers, who stated that the senior class was ready to elect a new president.

Johnny Spragins to Edit Summer Bant

Johnny Spragins, a student of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, has been elected editor of the summer edition of the college newspaper, The Texas A&M College. Spragins was appointed editor of the newspaper by the college administration. Spragins is a member of the college and is a student of the college.