Four Thousand Spectators Cram Fieldhouse For Cotton Pageant

Regional AIEE Begins 2-Day Meeting Today

Cotton is still King in College Station: Four thousand persons turned out to prove on Friday night, when the seventeenth annual Cotton Pageant was presented in the A&M Fieldhouse, that 'Two of Spades' O'Hara' was the theme.

Upset of the sponsoring group, the United Alumni Society, 101 planteas of Texas, representing as many clubs, colleges, and organizations, financed the great event.

Cotton was glorified in the program by Bob Miller, dean of students, who said:

"It would be a sight better to let the cotton grow for its own sake.""It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration. It is the desire of the Protective Committee that the interests of the students be taken into consideration.