HOMEMAKER'S GUIDE TO BEEF CUTS

Mrs. America, this chart shows you by name and shape each of the standard cuts of beef made to be sold at retail from the wholesale cuts in the center of the chart. Each of these beef cuts is subject to dollars-and-cents price ceilings at your retail meat shop. Your butcher was required to start selling under the new ceiling prices on May 14 and must have these ceiling prices posted in his store by June 4.

MacArthur To Talk From Capital Steps

Austin, June 7.—(AP)—The House and Senate will be seated in front of General MacArthur when he addresses a joint session on the steps of the capitol June 13. The general will arrive in Austin at 12:30 p. m. for his first stop on his Texas tour. Rep. Jerry Steward of Fairfield, a retired Rear Admiral who heads the House group on arrangements, said he had been informed the General preferred to go to his hotel suite for a rest. A luncheon at the Governor's Mansion had been arranged but cancelled. MacArthur will speak at 4 p. m. The General's party will include Mrs. MacArthur; their son, Arthur; his Chinese nurse; Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney; Col. Sydney Buff; the General's pilot; and a civilian aide. The only arrangements still undecided today were decorations and the kind of procession will follow MacArthur from Austin's Municipal Airport after he lands. The resolution inviting MacArthur to speak carried no appropriation. Steward said many persons wanted to contribute.

Camera Club Plans Meeting in MSC

The MSC Camera Club will begin its summer program tonight at 7:30 p. m. with the first in a series of discussions on picture printing. The discussions will be offered to all who are interested and will be in simple terms and language easy to understand. Printing and developing instructions will be offered as a second feature of the program, the purpose of which is to help everyone get better pictures and more enjoyment from their picture taking. Club members will have access to the MSC darkroom and all its facilities. A regular meeting schedule will be arranged. The officers of the club are Henry Cole, president; Alvin Aaronson, vice-president and Bob Alderice, treasurer.

Ridegway, Hope, DiMaggio 'Ike' Warns Reds In D-Day Speech

New York, June 7.—(AP)—Members of the Boys' Clubs of America yesterday announced selection of their "Favorite American Fathers" in seven fields: Military—General Matthew B. Ridgway. Radio—Bob Hope. Sports—Joe Di Maggio. Government—Vice President Alben W. Barkley. Television—Dan Seymour. Judiciary—Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson. Movies—Robert Young. The selections—exclusive of the Boys' own dads; of course—were announced by the clubs in connection with Father's Day, June 17. The announcement said the boys decided that "a dad who won't go fishing or play ball with his son isn't worth his weight in fatherhood." "The boys," the clubs said, "were overwhelmingly of the sentiment that, for him to be a real dad, he must share activities with his boy. It's not nearly enough for pop to supply junior with material comforts." The boys said the seven fathers named met the major specifications for a "real dad," as well as: "Firmness. A steady hand to guide them on the right path. Understanding. An appreciation of the fact that boys think differently than adults; that sometimes a boy would rather play with his friends than do chores. Sense of humor. An ability to laugh if the window is broken by a baseball. Companionship. Giving the boy a feeling that, come what may, he's got a real friend in dad."

Bayeux, France, June 7.—(AP)—Gen. Eisenhower returned on D-Day plus seven years to Normandy's dearly bought beaches and hedgerows yesterday and bluntly warned the Communist world to remember the lesson taught Hitler's Nazis. "All the free world would rally here again" if western civilization is threatened by aggression, the supreme commander declared at Ste. Mere Eglise, where the first waves of U. S. parachute troops paved the way for beach assaults on Hitler's fortress Europe in 1944. "Today the western world is united to defend freedom before it is lost," he told a crowd of 8,000 in another short speech at the British cemetery in Bayeux.

June Weddings Crowd Calendar For Many Aggies

By VIVIAN CASTLEBERRY
Battalion Women's Editor

It's all over now. And by the time you read this, the cycle will have begun again. Through the heat of the summer some 2000 students, their profs and most of the A&M staff will swelter in the business of keeping education moving. As for us, we're headed vacationward—in fact, will be well on our way by the time this finds its way into The Battalion. But we'll be back! And while our husband is one of the Texas Aggies who completes summer camp this year, we'll be hanging around for occasional visits with the many we've come to know through these pages.

GOLD BAND, LEFT HAND. John W. Cronin, MS '46, and Barbara Mary Hadfield of Altadena, Calif., were married Saturday in Altadena. The bride was graduated from Academy of the Holy Names in Rome, N. Y., and from Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, N. Y. The couple will live in Lafayette, La.

A Tulsa, Oklahoma wedding recently joined Betty Jean Griffin and James T. Coleman, Aggie-ex. After a wedding trip to the Gulf Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman are at home in Tulsa. . . S/Sgt. Sidney M. Osborn, '44 Aero, and Helen Farr will be married on June 23 at the home of the bride-elect in Dallas. Sid is stationed with the Army Air Force at Hensley Field. His bride-elect attended TSCW and SMU. Lt. William T. Rife, Jr., '48 Ch. E., and Merry Elizabeth Cadden were joined in matrimony recently in Victoria. Their attendants were Mrs. Archie D. Johnston, the bride's sister as matron of honor, and Aggie Jim Beck as best man. The couple live at Fort Hood where Lt. Rife is stationed. . . On July 14 a wedding in Queen of Peace Church, Houston, will unite Barbara Pluecker and Leo J. Diekmann, Jr., '46 Arch. The bride-elect is a graduate of Incanear World High School in Houston and attended Rice Institute and the University of Houston.

Gayle L. Clemons, AH '48, and Bobbie Janet Reynolds were married on June 3 in Denton's Little Chapel-in-the-Woods. Bobbie Janette has just graduated from TSCW where she was a member of Delta Phi Delta and the Alice Freeman Palmer social club. Neeta Ball attended the bride as maid of honor. . . Thomas Ben Williams, Aggie pre-med student and Jo Ann Jones are to be married soon. Tom Ben is scheduled to graduate this summer. His fiancée is a sophomore general education major at TSCW.

NURSEY NEWS. Aggie baseball pitcher Sam Blanton and his wife Nelda are parents of a future Aggie athlete. The youngster, weighing 7 lb. 5 oz. put in his appearance last Tuesday evening in Bryan's St. Joseph Hospital. Young Blanton's folks from Beaumont, live at 4501 College Main. . . Ed and Freida Aman have christened their new son Phillip Bruce. . .

Martha Cadwalder was the surprised honoree at a shower recently hosted by Darnell Beish and attended by twelve guests. Martha, the wife of vet student George Cadwalder, received an array of lovely presents from well-wishers.

VISITORS TO AGGIELAND. Among the recent visitors on the campus was Peggy McClain from Waxahachie and Dallas. Peggy, a vivacious little brunette, comes down on weekends sometimes when her boy friend, Bob Blum of Dallas, can't get up for the weekend. On Peggy's recent visit, the couple was looking over College View apartments with an eye toward what they could do to make one into a home for themselves. . . Eleanor York, another sometimes visitor to College Station, will arrive sometime today from Dallas where she will be among the audience when her fiance, Henry George Phillips, receives his degree Friday night. . . Among the recent visitors in our home was Sue Patton from Houston, our college roommate with whom we reminisced about "the good old Hilltop days." Sue's opinion on the MSC, A&M's living room, was a summation of many remarks we've heard about the place. "It's the most beautiful thing of its kind I've ever seen."

Pointers on pins. New styles have decreed that jewelry is fashionable in many places on women's apparel. Earrings go to the feet as sparklers on plain shoes; a new chemical glue fastens stylish jewelry right onto the flesh; charm bracelets are worn watch-chain style from belts. Many pins and clips are used to fasten on flowers at the throat, to accent a pocket on the skirt and on the back of blouses. This is all very charming and pretty, when used correctly. But one work of warning please: keep your sweetheart pins on the front of your blouses. These pins, like sorority and fraternity pins, should be worn over the heart.

ADD THIS TO YOUR jewelry collection notes: Fasten both earrings to one ear for an unusual effect. This note will be especially interesting to busy secretaries who like to wear earrings, but find them a nuisance when answering telephones.

An oldie now that summer's here again: For an especial cooling effect when summer heat swelters, dash on a breath of cologne just out of the refrigerator. Keep your favorite cologne in the refrigerator—the cap screwed on tightly, of course—and use it liberally to help beat the heat.

WHERE HAVE I SEEN YOU BEFORE? Aggie may be asking that question soon of a student who enrolled in A&M this week. He may be Lonnie Holland, big (6 ft. 1 in., 185 lb.) brunette fellow, and you may have seen him when you were passing (or failing) the test for your driver's license. Lonnie has been with the State Highway Department as a Driver's License Examiner for several years. He's quitting the job to complete his degree—lacks two years. He owns his home in Bryan and is married. His wife, Mary Jane, will be an attractive addition to the college wife set, and his young daughter, Sherrie Lynn, will join the Cradle Club.

DIRTY TRICKS DEPARTMENT. We'd like to know the end of this story: After an Aggie joyously left the campus Wednesday afternoon headed Dentonward to see the girl friend, two of his buddies got together, sent the girl a wire: "Sorry, can't make it. Letter of explanation follows."
