By RAY HOLBROOK
Battalion Sports Staff

Darrow Hooper, A&M's great soph weight star, beat the nations best collegiate shot putters at Seattle, Wash. Saturday, to win that event in the National Collegiate track and field championships.

Hooper's throw was 53-11 and bested USC's Parry O'Brien by an inch. O'Brien had beaten Hooper in the shot this year at the Los Angeles Coliseum Relays. Hooper also took a fifth in the discus with 155-7 behind Auburn's Jim Dillon's winning toss of 167-6.

Aggie ace high jumper Buddy Davis took a tie for second in the high jump with a 6-6 leap. Lewis Hall of Florida won the event with a 6-9 height.

Southern Cal Wins Meet

Southern California won the meet as expected, scoring 56 points to 40 for second-place Cornell and 38 for Morgan State. Occidental scored 24, Michigan State 23, UCLA 18½, Auburn 18 and A&M 15.

Fastest 880 of Year

John Barnes of Occidental turned in the nation's fastest 880 time of the year holding off a last minute challenge to win in 1:50.7.

The best race and biggest upset of the day was turned in by Warren Druehtler of Michigan State in winning the mile in 4:08.8. Druehtler let Bob McMillan of Occidental, the favorite, lead for 3½ laps and then turned on the steam to pass him going into the last turn.

The only other meet record broken was by Don Laz of Illinois who won the pole vault at 14-9½ but missed three times attempting 15 feet.

Bryan, Haltom Blind Bogey Meet Winners

Travis Bryan, Jr. of Bryan, former member of the Aggie golf team, 1947-50, won his second consecutive blind bogey tournament at the A&M Golf Course with a low gross of 72.

Bryan, winner of the championship flight, one of the two flights open for the tournament, also won the championship flight of the previous meet with a 71.

Guy Smith toured the 6715 yard, par 71 course in 80 strokes, but with his bogies scattered over the right holes, won the low net with a 62.

Winner of the other flight was Hal Haltom with a low gross of 85. Byron Joiner copped the low net honors with a 97-28-69. Runner-up was Buddy Moore with a 90-20-70 low net.

If you are still in doubt as to just how it works, maybe this will explain it for you.

The contestant enters the tournament by signing up at the clubhouse where he is given a scorecard. He then fires his 18 holes. After all the contestants have turned in scorecards, nine holes are picked from the course—in this case, four from the front side and five from the back nine.

The holes that were picked for the blind bogey affair Saturday and Sunday were numbers 1, 3, 7, 8, 11, 12, 13, 15 and 16.

Par for the designated holes is then subtracted from the contestants score for these holes and this figure for the nine designated holes is then doubled. This gives the contestant's handicap. This handicap is then subtracted from his gross or raw score and the winners are determined.

Prizes awarded to the winners were merchandise.

These tournaments will be held at least once a month, Joe Fagan Pro-Manager of the golf course said this morning.

Non-Military Loop In Two-Way Tie As Milner Wins 2-1

By TOM ROUNTREE

Bizzell dropped from undisputed first into a two way tie in the non-military softball league yesterday afternoon as they dropped their game with Milner 2-1.

Monday just wasn't Bizzell's day as Milner beat them in every department with the exception of bobbled balls. The difference between victory and defeat was one error. R. G. DeBerry got on first with an error in the fourth inning and then Bob Harris, Milner right fielder, blasted out a single and DeBerry then scooted home with Milner's winning run.

The game ended with Milner 4 hits, 2 runs, 4 errors and Bizzell 3 hits, 1 run and 5 errors. There was no joy in Mudville tonight.

Walton garnered half of the non-military softball first berth position yesterday by downing Dorm 15 to the tune of 11-7. The Waltonians failed to score in the first inning but made at least one tally in every inning thereafter.

Winning pitcher was Sonny Holloway, loser, was Al Sexton. The game ended with Walton 7 hits, 11 runs, 1 error and Dorm 15, 7 hits, 7 runs and 3 errors.
