Cadets May Win Or Lose Says AP

New York, Oct. 18—(AP)—California is the No. 1 team in the country. Under the Astute Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, the Golden Bears haven't lost a regular season game in four years, have a run of 38 straight excluding bowl engagements. A man who would pick against them should be measured for a straight jacket. Okay. Where's the tape and scissors? We predict the end of Pappy's string and also see strong upset possibilities facing two other top-ranking elevens, Tennessee and Texas A&M.

Here Goes the Pickin's

Southern California over California: The Trojans have a good but not a great team. California is loaded with power. But the Trojans will be afire with desire to avenge past indignities.

Tennessee over Alabama: The Volunteers are unbeaten and untied. Alabama has lost three. But forget the records in this one. The Crimson tide will be more than a drink of water.

Texas A&M over Texas Christian: Another game in which comparative scores can be tossed out the window. We'll string with the Aggies but wouldn't faint if it went the other way.

Texas over Arkansas: The Longhorns win their fifth straight but the Razorbacks have a tough hide. Won't be easy.

Michigan state over Penn State: The Spartans have been winning some close ones. This one shouldn't be so close.

Maryland over North Carolina: Jim Tatum's collection of athletes are too big, strong and fast. They could have a letdown and still prevail.

Illinois over Washington: Johnny Karas and his buddies headed for the Rose Bowl, for sure. Washington still missing Don Heinrich.

Notre Dame over Pittsburgh: Joe Varatis the margin.

The Others Quickly

Friday
College of the Pacific over Boston U; Boston College over Detroit; The Citadel over Furman; Wake Forest over George Washington; Miami over Washington & Lee.

Saturday
East—Army over Harvard; Princeton over Lafayette; Cornell over Yale; Colgate over Brown; Rutgers over Lehigh; Holy Cross over NYU; Syracuse over Dartmouth; Temple over Delaware; Bucknell over Buffalo; Maine over Connecticut; West Virginia over Geneva; Rochester over Vermont; Rhode Island over Massachusetts; San Francisco over Fordham.

Midwest—Ohio State over Indiana; Oklahoma over Kansas; Minnesota over Nebraska; Michigan over Iowa; Wisconsin over Purdue; Iowa State over Missouri; Drake over Oklahoma A&M; Colorado over Kansas State; Tulsa over Marquette.

South—Georgia Tech over Auburn; Tulane over Mississippi; Vanderbilt over Florida; Duke over VPI; Virginia over VMI; North Carolina State over William & Mary; Davidson over Richmond; Georgia over Louisiana State; Kentucky over Villanova.

Southwest—Baylor over Texas Tech; Southern Methodist over Rice; Houston over Hardin-Simmons.

Far West—UCLA over Oregon; Stanford over Santa Clara; Oregon State over Washington State; Wyoming over Brigham Young; Denver over Utah; Colorado A&M over Utah State; Montana over Montana State.

clashes with Arkansas, which already has lost two games. This battle will be in Fayetteville.

At Dallas, Rice and Southern Methodist plunge into conference warfare in a night game in the Cotton Bowl.

Baylor, which started its fight for the championship last week by ending Arkansas, 9-7, takes on green but growing Texas Tech at Waco.

The game between Baylor and the upstart Techsians, who licked Texas Christian last week, might be the best one of the lot, Tech, flecked with freshmen, isn't being taken lightly by the Bears, which is fortunate. The Red Raiders aren't to be taken lightly by anybody.

Sparks Of Aggie Offense

A&M's "sparks on the offense" are Billy Tidwell, right halfback; All-American Bob Smith, fullback; Dick Gardemal, quarterback; and Glenn Lippman, right halfback and the SWC's leading ground gainer. All are expected to see action tomorrow against TCU.

All-American Team Too Many Throwers

New York, Oct. 19—(AP)—When the 1951 All-America football team is chosen by the Associated Press this year, it's certain the squad will not lack for a passer.

Throwers featured the 19 new players nominated today by the AP All-America board for consideration. The additions brought to 38 the number already named this year.

Offensive and defensive elevens will be chosen at the end of the season, with final picks being drawn from the squad nominated throughout the season by the new AP board.

Heading the new list is Fred Benner, the Southern Methodist University halfback who completed 22 of 44 passes for 337 yards in helping forge SMU's 27-20 victory over Notre Dame.

Others nominated included Dick Kazmaier, Princeton's All-American star whose passes beat Pennsylvania, 13-7; Gil Boettli of Washington and Lee, who passed for two touchdowns in the 44-14 conquest of Virginia; and Bill Wade of Vanderbilt, whose expert passing topped Mississippi, 34-20.

Bowling Team Will Give Free Lessons
Boys from 8 to 14 years old who want to learn how to bowl will have an opportunity to attend free lessons beginning Saturday morning, Mrs. Elaine Lester, MSC Bowling Alley manager, said this morning.

Meeting throughout the bowl season, the classes will be instructed by John Geiger, senior A&M student and member of the bowling team.

Interested boys should be at the Bowling Alley at 9 a. m. Saturday morning to enroll and attend the first class, Mrs. Lester said. Classes will meet until 11 a. m.

"Orthodox" T

The Aggies will operate off the "orthodox" T but are capable of using other formations which was well demonstrated in the Oklahoma contest.

TCU, supplied with the necessary manpower, will employ the "two-platoon" system and their offense will run of the double and the nationally famous "Meyer Spread."

The Horned Frogs will entertain the Aggies with a large squad, with a 200 pound average line and the backs around 180.

Gilbert Bartosh, TCU's "triple threat", will carry the burden of the Frog attack. Last year Bartosh completed 77 out of 150 passes for 1023 yards, carried the ball 171 times for 862 yards.

He led the SWC with a total offensive yardage of 1733. He figured in 321 plays—100 more than any other player in the conference. He was fourth in the United States.

This game will be the 47th meeting of the old rivals which began in 1897. Over the long years, the Aggies have won 25 games, the Frogs 17, and four were ties.

"The boys who are suppose to know" have picked the Cadets as 13 point favorites but no one would faint if it turned out just the other way.

Head TCU Coach Meyer is always full of surprises and it is likely that the Frogs will not be caught napping.

Fish Eleven Squeaks Past Polywogs, 27-26

By GUS BECKER
Battalion Sports Writer

The Aggie Fish football team just barely squeaked by the hard-fighting T.C.U. Wogs last night on Kyle Field, edging out a 27-26 victory.

The Wogs were ahead all the game until Joel Smith, Fish quarterback from Lockhart, booted the ball through the uprights breaking a 26-26 deadlock in the last quarter.

Trailing at the half 7 to 19, the Fish roared back for 20 points in the last two periods for a hard earned win.

Edward Kachtik, a Rio Hondo lad, played a great game for the cadets, both on defense and offense. Kachtik ran 63 yards in the second quarter to score the first Fish score of the game. In the third period Kachtik plunged across the goal for another six points.

Fish Defense

On defense, the Fish, although heavily outweighed played a fine game with Henry Arnett a guard from Highland Park, Sidney Theriot a guard from Gibson, Louisiana, and Marvin Tate a guard from Abilene showing up very well.

Also in on many tackles were Fred Broussard of Dequincy, Louisiana, Ivan Greenhaw of Dallas, Billy Roberts of Galena Park, and Lawrence Winkler of Temple.

In the secondary Joe Boring from Dallas, Warren Anderson from San Antonio, and Ken Langford from Houston, looked very well on defense.

Ends Bennie Sinclair of Mineola and Rollina Rubsamen of San Antonio made many tackles behind the line of scrimmage for the Cadets.

Line Looks Weak

The Maroon and White line looked very weak at times, especially in the early stages of the contest, but seemed to grow stronger as the game progressed.

The same could be said for the Fish offensive backfield. During the first half the Wog backfield seemed to click every time while the Fish backs couldn't seem to hang on to the ball, fumbling several times.

Edgar Hennig at quarterback, Virgil Patton at fullback and Gerald Sandusky and Kachtik at the halfbacks seemed to work smoothly in the second half as Patton scored two touchdowns and Kachtik one. Sandusky was a consistent ground gainer all evening. Hennig, a 190 pound lad from Tyler appeared to be a very cool passer and ball handler, playing all the game except for a few minutes when Sam Howard came in to call plays.

Although looking bad in spots last night the Fish certainly showed that they never say die spirit and with a little more polish should be able to keep their record at 1000.

A&M Kicks Off

A&M kicked off to the Wogs who failed to move on their first try on the attack.

After stalling the Fish offense the Wogs directed by Roland Slinkscale, All-State, 165-pound seatback from Fort Worth, traveled from their own 35 to break the scoring ice. The scoring play was a pass from Slinkscale to Weldon Dacus for 40 yards.

Work Horse

Clinkscale a workhorse was reminiscent of Lindy Berry of T. C. U. who was the original workhorse. Clinkscale carried the pigskin almost every time and gained all but 30 yards of the Wogs yardage.

The try for the extra point by the Wogs was no good and that was all the scoring for the first quarter, which ended up Wogs 6 and the Aggie Fish 0.

Early in the second period W. C. O'Neal playing guard for the Wogs intercepted Hennig's pass and ran to the cadets 15 yard line. On the next play Clinkscale swept around his own right end to go over standing up to put the Wogs out in front by 12 points. The try for extra point was no good and the score remained Wogs 12 A&M 0.

Kachtik Runs

On the first play from scrimmage after the kickoff, Kachtik started on his own 38 yard line and ran all the way for the first Fish score going over standing up. Lyman Preston of Austin converted to put the cadets back in the game 7 to 12.

Richard Vick, left halfback from Beaumont, kicked the ball to Clinkscale on his own 5 yard line, he almost broke away carrying the hoghide all the way to the Aggie 48.

Terry Herrman of Gainesville relieved Clinkscale and led the way to paydirt hitting Dacus in the end zone to go out in front 18 to 7. David Finney finally split the up-rights for the Wogs making the score 19 for the Wogs and 7 for the Fish as the gun signalled the end of the first half.

T. C. U. Freshmen kicked off to the A&M Fish to start the second half of play and Ken Langford right halfback from Houston returned the ball back to his own 39.

James Self took the ball over the right side for 3 yards. Then San-

EAST MEETS WEST IN NEW RELAY EVENT

You've heard of the Penn Relays. But have you ever heard of a relay where the hurdles are mountains, the average stride is thirty miles, and the track stretches coast to coast?

It's the Bell System's Radio-Relay and it brings East and West together in one of the most important events in the history of communications.

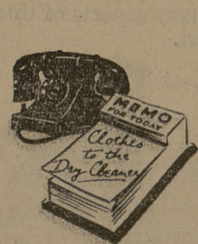

Telephone construction crews have just recently completed the coast-to-coast Radio-Relay system. Today, Long Distance calls ride on radio microwaves, beamed through the air from tower to tower. And, for the first time, television programs have been flashed from coast to coast.

The new system supplements the thousands of miles of wire cable that already tie the nation together. It helps make America's vast communications network even stronger and more flexible. And it could hardly happen at a better time. The demands of defense are heavy and urgent.

HOW Radio-Relay WORKS. Microwaves travel in a straight line. So relay towers are usually built on hilltops and spaced about thirty miles apart. Just as a runner picks up the baton from another runner, so each tower picks up microwaves from its neighbor, and with complex electronic equipment amplifies and focuses them like a searchlight, then beams them accurately at the next tower. And hundreds of Long Distance calls ride the beam at the same time.
