A. & M. COLLEGE OF TEXAS

Number 37: Volume 54

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS TUESDAY, JANUARY 4,

Panama Assembly Declares Temporary State Of Seige Move To Help Police All Aggies Return;

In Hunt for Killers PANAMA-(AP)-The National Assembly yesterday declared a state of siege, temporarily suppressing constitutional guarantees, to help secret police hunting the machinegun assassins of President Jose Antonio Remon.

With ex-President Arnulfo Arias and two women among Christmas holidays. more than a score of persons already rounded up for questioning about the plot, the state of siege-a modified form of mandant, and Bennie A. Zinn, head "There were probably some mimartial law-was decreed to run 10 days.

Remon, 46-year-old strongman regarded as the outstand- that they had received no notice of we were pleased that there were ing president in the republic's history, was shot down from any student deaths or serious in- no serious ones." the darkness Sunday night as he sat with friends in a brilliantly lighted pavilion at the fashionable Juan Franco race off the campus are usually report- traffic accidents on the campus track four miles northeast of + this city. Two other men were killed and three were wounded in the exchange of Goodwin Reported gunfire between the assassins and the presidential bodyguard.

Col. Saturnino Flores, deputy commander of the National Guard, Doing Very Well' Panama's main military force,

He recalled recent threats of major use, according to the National new president, first considered de-claring a 30-day state of signed Ban Students claring a 30-day state of siege. This was amended unanimously to

The two men killed with Remon were Jose Peralta, a secret police parochial and private schools in the United States, Hawaii and Alaska. Also included will be about 1,390,000 children who did not receive vaccine in the trials, but a harmless substance.

darkened grandstand, after the day's races were over, while Re-mon and his party sat in the bril-Lubbock. Nothing objectionable about A special matinee will be pre- vaccine last spring, but the others fiantly lighted area near the prescomics that can show that, kind of profit. idential box.

No A&M students have been re-|ed to one or both of these departported killed or injured during the ments.

Holiday Deaths

"We usually get the reports Both Col. Joe E. Davis, com- pretty early," Zinn said.

of student affairs, said yesterday nor accidents," Davis said, "but Chief of Campus Security Fred

Price 5 Cents

Deaths and accidents occurring Hickman said that there were no during the holidays, and College Station City Manager Ran Boswell said there were no accidents in the city either.

Both agreed that "it was pretty quiet here without all the students."

Texas and the nation didn't fare as well as the Aggies during the holidays.

The Associated Press reported last night that the latest count on accidental deaths over the nation for the holiday weekend was 362-Whiting said what the hospitals 296 of them traffic deaths.

Texas led all states with 20 traf-

The National Safety council had p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday -56 below the latest count.

Two other students who were ess seriously injured in the same Berry To Head pital. They are Denton Weiland, graduate student from Falfurias, and Howard Andrew, senior from A&M Chapter graduate student from Falfurias,

Whiting said his department Of Sigma Xi does not yet know the exact cause

Dr. R. O. Berry of the anima Xi for 1955. Other officers of the national

Salk Polio Vaccine

The groups are approximately

Town Hall will present the

Polio Drive Opens Today

$20.000 Goal

vid H. Morgan, A&M president.

By BILL FULLERTON Battalion City Editor

The 1955 Brazos County March of Dimes opened with a goal of four. with Mrs. Lucille Foster.

ted Furniture store, 214 East 25th. situation calmly. Space has been donated for the entire month and will serve as the hearquarters for all activities and of interest to the public. agers, have already volunteered Town Hall Show Many workers, including teentheir services for the polio drive, but more are needed, said Mrs. Set For Thursday

Foster. Volunteers are invited to visit the headquarters where they Houst elementary school children receiv- ed last spring and is now being ed gamma globulin polio immuni- evaluated at the University of developments by Arias' followers. zation shots Oct. 27-28. The chil-dren were in grades one through jr. and his staff. Their findings State Dulles said apparently "no of Dimes opened with a goal of $20,000, according to Mrs. John Perry, co-chairman of the drive with Mrs. Lucille Foster. Five eldistren dropped out of Consolidated this year because of fective and is licensed, it will be polio. L. S. Richardson, superin- offered at no charge for the pro-Headquarters for this year's bill tendent of the Consolidated schools, duct to some of the nation's most tendent of the Consolidated schools, duct to some of the nation's most the prodrive opened at 9 a.m. at the Uni- said that parents had taken the susceptible groups for immediate ter, Jose Ramon Guizado, as the Foundation of Infantile Paralysis. Another possible protection 7,750,000 children enrolled in the the 10-day period. as a distribution center for cam- against polio paralysis is the Salk first and second grades of public, paign materials and polio literature polio vaccine which was field test- parochial and private schools in but a harmless substance.

There were 1,830,000 children who participated in the 1954 field trials the assassing opened up with machineguns from the darkened grandstand after the said the authorities have no defin- Robert Goodwin, Bryan gradu- | said that Goodwin would not need ite clues to identify or motive of ate student who was injured in a skin grafting on his head or face, the assassins. But Flores indicated laboratory explosion here Dec. 14, but that some grafting would be strongly the weight of suspicion is now in Galveston's John Sealy required on his hands. fell on supporters of Arias, ousted hospital and "doing very well," acfrom the presidency in the bloody cording to hospital authorities. first thought were third degree

1951 coup by the National Guardwhich Remon headed.Flores said that if the object ofGoodwin was seriously burned ina natural gas explosion in the pe-troleum engineering laboratoryInst thought were third degreeburns all over his body turned outto be less serious.Texas led all states with 20 traf-fic fatalities, followed by Minne-sota, 19; California, 18; and New the assassination was to gain con- here. He was first treated at It will probably be several York, 16. trol of the government, the plot Bryan's St. Joseph's hospital, and months before Goodwin will be failed because the National Guard had firm control of the situation. the Saturday after the explosion. Whiting, who has been in contact die in traffic deaths between 6

The National Assembly, which Now They'll

A couple of A&M students of the accident, and probably "nev-er will find out." He said somediscovered a new way to make thing caused accumulated natural m al husbandry department has banned what the city officials call "objectionable comic

The graduate students were con- honorary society will be Dr. Wayne So the enterprising Aggies ducting an experiment in involving C. Hall, plant physiology and pathbought several 10 cent comic books in College Station, and with the gas, and a leak some-Brown, agronomy, secretary; and Brown, agronomy, secretary; agronow; agronomy, secretary; agronomy, secretary; agronomy, secretary; agronow; agron em for 25 cents each in where caused the gas to accumu- Dr. Frank Gould, range and for-|estry, treasurer. Whiting estimated the damage to equipment alone at $25,000. The graduate laboratory, which is a part of a larger laboratory, was completely destroyed. The larger laboratory was not as seriously description of the group damaged, and was back in use elected to the committee on ad-Three members of the group three days after the accident. missions were Dr. W. L. Tidwell, Twenty-four students who were Twenty-four students who were in the larger laboratory at the trisse the complexion were unin time of the explosion were uninmoney during the holidays. They live in Lubbock, which and wood fires. will be president of A&M's chapter of the Society of Sig-help with the drive that can be fit- seum. ted into school activities and home or office work, she said.

Doing Experiment books."

Contributions can be mailed or taken to the headquarters or put in the special plastic coin jars in different stores. This year, envelopes will be mailed to potential contributors for their donations, said Mrs. Perry.

day.

choosing.

About 500 A&M Consolidated adults and $1 for children.

By The ASSOCIATED PRESS

curtail optometry advertising were laid before the State Board of Optometry at a public hearing yesterday, but the board took no action. Dozens of optometrists from throughout the state told the board it should reinstate

*

advertising and setting up "professional standards." *

*

asked its stockholders to help raise 325 million dollars to meet expanding needs. Present shareholders will be offered the right to subscribe to one new share of common

*

NEW YORK-General Motors Corp. yesterday,

*

anew against Communist propaganda.

stock for each 20 shares held.

will find many opportunities to 8 p.m. Thursday in White Coli-

PLANT TOUR-A&M officials toured the Dow Chemical company's Texas division plants in Freeport during the holidays. Pictured are, left to right, Ide P. Trotter, dean of the Graduate School; Joe M. Parish, Texas division chief engineer; M. T. Harrington,

A&M System chancellor; Earl B. Barnes, Dow's director of organic research; and Da-sented Thursday afternoon for did not. school children. It will be a The tests were sponsored by the program of lighter music than national foundation and paid for the evening performance. The with $7,500,000 of March of Dimes price of non-student tickets for funds.

the matinee is $1. General admission tickets will be sold at the door for $2 for

Astronomy Films News of the World

Presented Tonight

Three astronomical films, sponsored by the physics department, will be shown tonight at 7:30 in WASHINGTON-Republican leaders predicted yester- the physics lecture room. day, after previewing President Eisenhower's State of the Two of the films, "Solar Sys-Union message with him at the White House, that it will be tem" and "Exploring the Uniwell received by the country. Eisenhower will deliver it per-sonally to a joint session of the Senate and House on Thurs-sions of the Sun" will be silent but there will be a running commentary during the showing of the AUSTIN—Arguments both for and against rules to

Comments on the films will be offered by the physics astronomy

The public is invited to attend the showing, J. T. Kent of the mathematics department said.

from the 23 countries in Area III will attend a mid-winter conference on the campus Friday and WASHINGTON-A congressional committee urged yes- problems facing farmers, social seterday that the United States launch immediately "a posi- curity for farmers, livestock selective, bipartisan, political offensive" to counteract what it tion, poultry judging, dairy procalled a Communist plan for lulling the free world into in- ducts, meats and other subjects in action and starting World War III at a time of the Kremlin's which they have shown interest during past meetings. month.

The purpose of the society is "to encourage original investigations n science, pure and applied."

Scouts To Meet

The Aggie Explorer Scouts and A special meeting of the "T" Scouters will hold an organizaassociation will be held Wednesday tional meeting at 7 p.m. Wednesat 7:15 p.m. in the chemical en- day in the YMCA, according to gineering lecture room, Lawrence R. H. Fletcher of the mechanical Winkler, club president, said Mon- engineering department.

Weather Today

PARTLY CLOUDY

The forecast for today is con-

Yesterday's high was 76, low desty, business manager of student 63. The temperature at 10:30 this morning was 69.

Announcements In

Graduation announcements for January graduates have arrived and may be picked up at the office of student activities in Goodwin tinued cloudy. hall, announced W. D. (Pete) Haractivities.

rules, revoked after short duration recently, restricting VATICAN CITY-Pope Pius XII yesterday, urged the Area Teachers world to transform the current "cold peace" into a true peace

world to transfer the called upon Christians to help build "a bridge of peace" between East and West. But he warned Vocational agriculture teach

Vocational agriculture teachers

Saturday. They will take part in a program designed to bring them up to date on improved classroom teaching methods and materials,

Hirsch will accompany her. Miss Lack, who has been featured soloist with several symphony orchestras, will present the program she will give in New York later this

RECITAL SERIES—Miss Fredell Lack, above, will give a violin recital here at 8 tonight in the Memorial Student Center as a presentation of the MSC recital series. Albert

Special Meet Called By 'T' Association

jured.

Plans for the annual club dinner-dance and the spring Sports Day will be discussed, Winkler

Fertilizer Meet Here Thursday

About 150 persons from all parts of the state are expected to attend the annual Texas Fertilizer conference here Thursday and Friday. The conference is sponsored by the agronomy department.