

Social Whirl

Thursday
The American Veterinary Medical Association Student Wives auxiliary will meet at 8 p.m. in the social room of the Memorial Student Center. The junior class wives club will be hostesses for the meeting. A panel of veterinary faculty wives will discuss questions concerning the life of a veterinary wife as the program for the meeting.

The Aggie Wives Bridge club will meet at 7:30 p.m. in rooms 2A and 2B of the MSC. Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Mandine Chambers and Mrs. Janie Clark for the regulars; Mrs. Lill Jack and Mrs. Violet Palmer for the intermediates; and Mrs. Mary Arnold and Mrs. Camille Barmore for the beginners.

Friday
The A&M Garden club will meet at 2:30 p.m. in the MSC. "Guide for Flower Show Exhibitors With Scales of Points of Plant Societies" will be given at the meeting by Mrs. Edward Madeley, flower show chairman.

Monday
The Chemical Engineering Wives' club will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the cabinet room of the YMCA. Mrs. W. C. Adams, former book reviewer of Dallas will speak to the group. Mrs. Margaret Campbell, club president, has asked that each member bring a guest to the meeting.

SCIENTIFIC MAGICIAN — Dr. Keith Hargett of the Moody Institute of Science is presenting a series of "Sermons From Science" lectures at the First Baptist church in Bryan, each night this week. Hargett uses science to explain how science and the Bible coincide.

Leaders Training Course Set for Arrowmoon Area

Louis J. Bolmanski, assistant district commissioner in charge of explorer activities, has announced a four-meeting training session for adult scout leaders in the explorer phase of the Boy Scout program of the Arrowmoon district. The Arrowmoon district is made up of Brazos and Robertson counties.

Meetings of the training session will be held weekly, beginning Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish house of St. Andrews Episcopal church in Bryan.

Regular members of the Boy Scout district training committee will be in charge of the sessions. These officials are the Rev. R. L. Herring jr. chairman; Sgt. G. R. Cox, Major O. H. Franks, Frank McCoy sr., and Bolmanski. Leonard A. McPherson, district scout executive, will assist the committee.

Following the end of the sessions the committee and leaders will take a camping trip for both enjoyment and to acquaint themselves with the outdoor phase of the explorer program.

MSC Style Shows To Begin Again

The style shows in the Memorial Student Center have started again and will be held each Thursday, according to Mrs. Ann Keel, MSC social director.

The shows were discontinued briefly because the MSC was closed during the holidays.

The show is presented by Beverly Braley's in Bryan. The models are Mrs. Gloria Smith, Miss Kay King, and Mrs. Betty Floyd.

UN Club Changes

The United Nations club will meet on Thursday of this week instead of Friday, because of the Ecumenical conference. The meeting, which will be at 7:30 p.m. in the YMCA will consist of a film and commentary on Mexico.

CHS Tigers Schedule Two Meets

A&M Consolidated tennis teams compete in two invitational meets next week, after the Tigers finished in third place at the Alvin Invitational tourney last weekend. The CHS boys team plays in the Austin invitational March 18-19, while the girls take part in the Baytown invitational. The district meet will be held at Bastrop April 12.

Soccer Team Has Streak Broken 3-2

Suffering its first defeat since October 1953, A&M's soccer team lost 3-2 Sunday to Ellington air force base in Houston.

Ellington broke the Aggies' 22 game winning streak on a penalty shot in the last half after A&M came from behind a 2-0 deficit to a tie in the first half.

Late in the final period, Juan Letts, the Aggie captain, was charged with pushing, and EAFB made its penalty shot.

Letts and Lee Blocker showed well for A&M.

At Alvin, Betsy Burchard won the senior girls singles title, defeating Fayrene Watson of Alvin 6-2, 6-4, in the finals. She had drawn a first round bye and beat Marilyn Meyer of Lamar Consolidated (Rosenberg) 6-2, 6-0.

The Tigers' senior girls doubles entry, Betty Leeds and Margaret Manthei lost 4-6, 2-6, in the semifinals to Lamar's duo of Alice Heverick and Sue Massey. Maureen Lewis and Eugenia Rush of CHS also lost in the semifinals, 4-6, 5-7.

Lamar won the meet, with Alvin second. Horace Mann (Baytown), Spring Branch, Sugarland, Webster and Freeport also competed. Don Avery lost in the boys junior semifinals to Leroy Como of National League batting champion Willie Mays hit .348 against right handers and .337 against lefties in compiling his .345 average.

Bowling Tourney

The Intercollegiate Bowling tournament has been postponed until April 30-May 1, because of a lack of entries, said John M. Geiger, manager of bowling and games in the Memorial Student Center. It had been set for the week end of March 12.

LUCKY DROODLES! GET 'EM HERE!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.
Doodle suggested by Norman Gerber, C. C. N. Y.

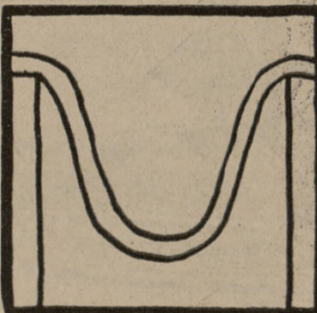

HAVE A LITTLE FUN when you smoke. Enjoy yourself. Give yourself the pleasure of a better-tasting Lucky Strike. The enthusiasm often inspired by Luckies' famous better taste is illustrated in the Doodle (right) titled: Alphabet soup for Lucky smoker. So why stew over what cigarette to smoke? Luckies' taste is letter-perfect. After all, L.S./M.F.T.—LuckyStrike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. When you light up, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette... Lucky Strike.
