Flower Show Uses Theme of Circus

A circus theme "Under The Big Top" will be used by the A&M Garden club for their spring flower show in the educational building of the Presbyterian church, Tuesday, March 29.

Cut-outs of animals from the circus will be in the background of the floral arrangements and entries in the show will follow the big top theme, Mrs. Marion Pugh and Mrs. Tom Taylor, co-chairmen of the staging and properties committee, announced.

In division two, arrangements, there will be 15 classes composed of the bearded lady, an iris arrangement; queen of the big top, an arrangement of roses; the aerialist, a daffodil arrangement; tight-wire artist, an asymmetrical arrangement; the animal acts, an arrangement with animal accessories; the harlequin clown, red, blue or yellow predominating; roller coaster, a hogarth curve; taffy apples, an arrangement of fruit and flowers; Flora, the cannon girl, a novelty in an unusual container;

Others are "Wheel of Fortune," novice class for those who have not won a blue ribbon; "Hey, Rubel," fresh foliage arrangement, with accent other than flowers; the sawdust ring, an arrangement of dried material such as driftwood; and the shooting gallery, the Men's Invitational class.

Committee chairmen for the flower show are Mrs. Edward Madeley and Mrs. Al B. Nelson, flower show and schedule; Mrs. Ben D. Cook, horticulture entries; Mrs. T. R. Timm, arrangements entries; Mrs. J. E. Roberts, classification of horticulture; Mrs. S. L. Loveless, arrangements classification.

Mrs. Armstrong Price, judges; Mrs. E. L. Angell, arrangements

BA Wives Plan Western Dance

The Business Wives club will sponsor a western style dance Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at Maggie Parker's dining hall.

Mrs. Margaret Jones, club president, said that all proceeds from the dance will be given to the newly organized nursery.

Tickets for the dance are $1.25 per couple and will be sold at the door.

of clerks; Mrs. C. C. Doak, horticulture clerks; Mrs. C. C. Campbell and Mrs. R. R. Lyle, hospitality; Mrs. Carl Landiss and Mrs. R. D. Lewis, publicity; Mrs. Fred Smith, horticulture placement; and chairman of arrangement classes, placement arrangements.

The standard system of judging will be used for the show. A blue ribbon will be awarded for the most perfect entry in a class, a red ribbon for second best, a yellow for third best, and white ribbons for entries worthy of honorable mention.

Tri-color will be awarded for the outstanding exhibit in both the horticulture division and the arrangement division. Each will count five points toward the sweepstakes. A sweepstakes ribbon will be awarded to the winner of the greatest number of blue ribbon points in the horticulture division and to the winner of the greatest number of blue ribbon points in the arrangement division.

Rules for exhibitors are as follows:

- Exhibits will be limited to A&M Garden club members, with the exception of the Men's Invitational classes.

- Exhibits must be placed between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 noon, after which no entries will be accepted. Helpers in the show must enter their exhibits before 9 a.m.

- Exhibits must remain in place until the final closing hour of the show. All exhibits must be removed by 9 p.m. on the night of the show.

- Exhibitors will be allowed only one entry in each class, except where classes are sub-divided; in which case one entry will be allowed in each sub-division.

- Arrangements must be made at home. Two-thirds of the material used must have been grown by the exhibitor. Exceptions to this rule are classes 10 (taffy apples, an arrangement of fruit and flowers) and 14 (the sawdust ring, an arrangement of dried material).

- All horticulture exhibits must have been grown by the exhibitor. Extra points will be given for correct labeling.

- Horticulture exhibits must be displayed in clear, glass bottles furnished by the exhibitor.

- Exhibitors are responsible for all personal property used in the show.

- Potted plants must have been in exhibitor's possession three months.

- Accessories will be limited to class 5 (the animal acts, an arrangement with animal accessory).

- The decision of the judges will be final.

- Members are required to enter at least one class or be penalized.
