Mrs. Risien Picked Duchess

Mrs. George Risien was chosen to represent the geology wives at the Cotton pageant and ball during the last meeting of the Geology Wives club.

Plans for a club dance following Lent were discussed by the club during the business meeting. A committee of Mrs. W. D. McCarty, Mrs. R. T. Foust and Mrs. Risien was appointed to schedule the dance.

Refreshments were served following the meeting by hostesses Mrs. D. D. Mounce and Mrs. Foust.

Bill Brophy's all-time school scoring record. Lemons scored 749 points and averaged 23.7 in leading the Ramblers to a 20-12 record. Last season was only his fourth year of basketball.

Rated one of the top prospects in Texas junior college circles, the Dyess, Ark., native has received offers from 23 schools, including Vanderbilt, Mississippi State, Arkansas and Texas. Needless to say, he has been assured that there is a place for him here.

WHO, ME?—This personable young lady is somewhat startled because she has just discovered that she is going to be at Texas A&M April 2. She will be here because she is the vocalist with the Buddy Brock orchestra, and the orchestra is going to play for the Sophomore ball in The Grove that night. Her name is Betty Cole, her age is 18, her home is Houston, and her marital status is unknown.

Irish Green To Be Theme Of Employees Dinner Dance

Wear a bit of green and brush up on the Irish brogue if you plan to attend the employees dinner dance tonight in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center. St. Patrick's day will be the theme of the social.

Chicken-in-the-rough will be the dinner menu with a desert in keeping with the Irish day theme, lime sherbert and cookies.

The Capers Combo will play for the dance after the dinner at 7:30 p.m. A. F. Isbell, chairman of the Dinner club committee said that those not able to attend the dinner are invited to come to the dance. Dress may be formal, semi-formal or informal.

Canned or home-cooked pear halves look pretty and taste good when their cavities are filled with apricot puree and they are surrounded with a soft custard sauce.

Chairmen for handling arrangements for the affair are Mrs. Robert M. Stevenson, menu; G. W. Schlesselman, tickets; Capt. E. H. Libby, publicity; and Mrs. K. A. Manning, dance.

FAMILY FAVORITES

(Editor's note: Spring and the spring showers are finally here, and with the spring the lady of the household usually notices that her men folks are slow in everything but their eating habits. They call for every type of edible tid-bits from toasted hot-dogs to the fanciest six-course meal and always somewhere in-between they ask for home-made pie. These pie recipes were given to me by several ladies from Fort Worth.)

By Mrs. F. Moreland

To begin a pie, most people start with the crust and my favorite is the crispy vanilla wafer crust.

VANILLA WAFER CRUST

1 cup crushed vanilla wafers 2-3 tablespoons butter
Crush wafers between two pieces of waxed paper with a rolling pin and place in bowl with melted butter. Mix wafers and butter together and press into the bottom of the pie pan to about a quarter inch thick. Place in ice box until ready to use.

This is the filling I usually use in the wafer crust although others may be used.

FROZEN LEMON PIE

3 eggs separated ½ pint whipping cream
1 can Eagle Brand milk 1/3 cup of sugar
3 lemons (juice and pulp)

Whip cream and put in refrigerator. Beat egg whites until stiff, add sugar and put in refrigerator also. Beat egg yolks, add milk and heat the mixture (not boiling). Add lemon juice and beat until thick. Add whipped cream, mix and pour over the vanilla wafer crust. Spread beaten egg whites and sugar over filling and put under a broiler flame for one or two minutes to brown. Cool, cover with waxed paper and aluminum foil and place in freezing unit overnight.

By Mrs. Faye Stevens

Here is an easy pie to make and always seems to please those to whom I have served it.

STRAWBERRY ICE BOX PIE

1 package of frozen strawberries (large pack) 1 can of Eagle Brand milk
Heat milk and lemon juice together until thick. Add defrosted strawberries and stir until berries are evenly distributed in mixture. Pour into nine-inch baked pie shell and store in refrigerator until ready to serve. Just before serving top with whipping cream that has been colored light pink with strawberry juice.
