A&M's strong track team is heavily favored to extend its mastery over Rice and LSU tomorrow in a triangular meet on Kyle field. Field events begin the meet at 2:30 with the first race at 3 p.m. "I don't think we will have too much trouble," said Coach Frank Anderson, "we have a better balanced team than either of them." Rice has failed to trip an Anderson coached team since it pulled the trick in 1935, and LSU has never done it. Aggie entries for the meet are: Harley Hartung, Carol Goyer, Don Watson and Bill Holloway in the sprint relay; Goyer and Watson, 100-yard dash; James Hollingsworth, Hartung and Jimmy Snyder, high and low hurdles; Holloway, John Roberts and Bob

McKnight, 440-yard dash; Wallace Kleb, Bennett Ragsdale, S. L. Sullivan and David Hogan, 880-yard run; Verlon Westmoreland, Bob Boles, John Whitnell and Bob Hooper, mile; Bill Coker, Ed Blake, F. R. Rul and Duane Wilson, two-mile; Roberts, McKnight, Holloway, Kleb or Goyer, mile relay; Tom Bonorden, Herman Johnson and Lee Newman, shot and discus; John Henry, Joe Schiraldi, Fred Hartman and John Cain, javelin; Winton Thomas, James Jackson and James Clark, vault; Fritzie

Reds Win 53-28; Drills End Saturday

Sporting eight lettermen and the top '54 Fish, the Maroons flooded across four touchdowns in both the second and fourth periods to swamp the Whites 53-28 yesterday in A & M's fourth game-condition scrimmage of spring football practice.

Esquivel scampered 51 yards around right end just before the half for the Reds' fourth score. Dudley took another pitch and ran 49 yards for the first touchdown of the fourth quarter, and his point-after put the Maroons ahead for the first time, at 33-28. Crow scored the last three touchdowns, on runs of 37, 20 and 10 yards and converted twice.

The Whites, with Bobby Conrad at quarterback, were spotted a 28 point lead by the coaching staff, but the Reds, with Jimmy Wright at the throttle, stormed for 25 first downs and 523 yards rushing.

With fullbacks Ken Hall and Jack Pardee, and halfbacks Ed Dudley, John Crow, Carlos Esquivel and Loyd Taylor pounding for huge chunks of yardage, the Reds made a rout of the game in the final six minutes, scoring three times.

Crow scored the last three touchdowns, Pardee once, Dudley and Esquivel twice.

The Cadets wind up practice Saturday night with another game-condition scrimmage after a workout today. Head Coach Paul Bryant said gates will be locked to all but students, faculty members and players' parents for the 7 p.m. contest.

Esquivel scored the first Maroon touchdown, taking a 14-yard pass from Wright after Esquivel's 45-yard burst set it up. Dudley converted.

Pardee took a pitchout and spurred 9 yards for the second, Dudley again converting. Dudley ran 41 yards around left end to score after a pitchout from Wright.
