Dames Club Will Feature Guest Professional Harpist

Mrs. Mairfred Ziemia, professional harpist, will be the featured guest at the Dames club meeting tonight at 8 in the YMCA.

Mrs. Ziemia will play both classical and popular selections. She is the wife of a Bryan air force base cadet and has worked in radio, television and a Phoenix, Ariz., supper club. Mrs. Virginia Riddings, club reporter, said Mrs. Ziemia was also a member of the Denver and Phoenix symphony orchestras and gives private harp lessons. During the evening's program she will play "Gavotte" by Gluk; "Autumn" by Grandjany; and a medley of popular numbers. Mrs. Pat Henderson will hostess the meeting and refreshments will be served. The meeting is open to the public, Mrs. Riddings said.

Mrs. Terry Has One-Man Show

Mrs. Emilita Newton Terry, advisor of the Memorial Student Center art gallery group, has a one-man show now on display in the main lounge of the MSC.

The display consists of 20 paintings, mostly watercolors and mixed media, with a few oils. In the show are some pictures that were in a one-man show given by Mrs. Terry in Austin recently, and one accepted to hang in the National Academy gallery in New York City during May.
