

Former Secretary Takes Foreign Job

Mrs. Louise Glenn has arrived in Dacca, East Pakistan, for an assignment in the office of the A&M group in that country, Dr. G. M. Watkins, dean of the School of Agriculture, said today.

She will serve as administrative assistant to H. P. Smith, chief of the group in the Intercollegiate Exchange Program of the A&M System and the University of Dacca.

Mrs. Glenn has been granted a two-year leave of absence from her position as secretary to the dean of agriculture.

A native of Brazos County and a graduate of Texas Woman's University, she first joined A&M in June, 1947, as a temporary stenographer in the Department of Dairy Husbandry.

On Sept. 1, 1947, she became a stenographer in the Department of Bio-chemistry and Nutrition. From June 22, 1949 to August 31, 1949 she was secretary in the Graduate School.

After teaching in A&M Consolidated High School for two years, she returned to the college on Aug. 1, 1951, as a secretary in the Department of Animal Husbandry. She became secretary to the dean of the college Sept. 1, 1956, and secretary to the dean of agriculture on Aug. 1, 1957.

Mrs. Glenn is active in the National Secretaries Assn. She served as recording secretary for this organization during 1957-58 and currently has membership on four committees.

She is a member of the local chapter of Beta Sigma Phi and was elected this year as vice president of the TWU Alumni Assn. She had previously served the association as secretary, press

Alpha Zeta Initiates 22 New Members

Dr. G. M. Watkins, dean of the School of Agriculture, and Dr. H. O. Kunkel, professor of Biochemistry and Nutrition, were initiated into the Texas Alpha chapter of Alpha Zeta at A&M last night.

Twenty students were also brought into the national honor fraternity of agriculture.

Members of this fraternity are selected on a basis of scholarship, leadership and character. They are described as the future leaders in the field of agriculture.

Dr. Fred Jones, retired head of the Department of Agricultural Engineering, presented a challenge to the initiates to seek the type of work they enjoyed doing.

I.Ed. Seniors To Have Field Trip

Two groups of seniors in the Department of Industrial Education will take their annual seminar field trip, April 6-7.

The two-day trip will consist of inspection tours of various industrial plants and a public school.

One group of students will go to the Houston area and the other to the Fort Worth area.

Wesleyans to Hold Communion Rites

The A&M Wesley Foundation will hold a special Easter communion service at 6:30 a. m. Wednesday according to the Rev. Bob Cooper, director of the foundation.

The meditation will be "Witness to The World" and will be used to help put the students in the spirit of the Easter season.

A breakfast of milk, coffee, sweet rolls and donuts will be served afterwards. An informal discussion on the problems of the day will follow.

A car will be at the steps at the north end of the New Corps Area for those who desire a ride, Rev. Cooper said.
