

The Little League Corner

By RUSSELL BROWN
It's all over but the shoutin' in the American League South as the Red Sox swept the second half title from the Senators to cop the season league championship.
The stage was set beginning last Wednesday when the Sens defeated the White Sox 2-1 on Larry Coufal's homer and Walter Varvel's sacrifice fly. Larry Godfrey beat Joe Powell of the White Sox in the pitchers' battle while Coufal led the Sens in hitting with 2-2. Jimbo Butler led the losers with 2-3. In the second game the Red Sox went seven innings before downing the Orioles 14-10. Jimbo Robison and Hubert Hearne toiled for the Sox with Robison chalking up his sixth straight victory while Mark Hayes, Willie Edmonds, and Dick Pewthers hurred for the Orioles. Randy Hall went 3-4 to lead the Sox while Jerry Davis went 2-4 for the Birds. Pewthers slammed his second homer of the season for the Orioles in the fifth.

In the first game, both contests being makeups of rained out affairs, the White Sox took third place with a 14-0 trouncing of the Orioles. Ten runs on five hits and seven Orioles errors gave the Sox the lead for good in the third. The Orioles had men on base in every inning except the fourth, but couldn't score. Duke Butler took the win while Rodney Greer suffered the loss.
The shouting that is left is the All-Star Tourney in Bryan on July 24th when the South All-Stars meet the National League East Stars.

Our children love Sundays. First, of course, there is church. Afterwards, in good weather, we often have a "backyard picnic."

For me, this outing comes after a morning when I have completed one of the most important tasks of my week — preaching a sermon to my congregation. Yes, I'm a minister. If that surprises you, it shouldn't.

We ministers are people too — just as close as anyone else to pleasure, temptation, anxiety, and all the other things that go to make up life. But God has entrusted us with the task of conveying His message to you. It is a tremendous task. Yet always I feel blessed that it is mine.

When you see me standing alone in my pulpit on Sundays, do not feel that I am a figure apart from you. Rather, I want to share not only your hours of church attendance but also your moments both of triumph and of trial. I stand ever ready to serve you, to lend you my assistance, my understanding and, should you seek it, my counsel. It is only in this way that I can hope to be worthy of my vocation. Remember, won't you — and call upon me?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
