

Recruiter

U. S. Air Force Col. P. J. John, '32, has been named to one of the top jobs in the Air Force Recruiting Service. He will take command of the 3505th U S A F Recruiting Group which covers 13 midwestern states and stretches from Michigan to Wyoming.

Variety to Head MSC Pics Sunday

Variety is the keynote in Sunday's version of "Operation Flick," the Memorial Student Center's regular Sunday afternoon free film, set for 3 p.m. in Rooms 2A-2B of the MSC.

Included on the bill are "Army Explorers in Space," Van Gogh—From Darkness into Light" and a sports reel featuring college and pro football and an international horse race.

"Army Explorers in Space" is a color film recently released by the Army, giving the story of the development and launching of the earth satellite, "Explorer," from its design stages to the final countdown and firing at Cape Canaveral.

The many problems encountered in the filming of the feature-length movie "Lust for Life" are shown in "Van Gogh—From Darkness into Light." Revealing some of the technical mysteries of modern motion-picture making, the color film recreates many of the actual scenes painted by Van Gogh and shows how some of them had to be rebuilt.

In highlights of the sports reel, Army beats Texas, then is tied by Pittsburgh. Navy loses to Notre Dame, surprising Northwestern knocks Ohio State out of the Big Ten championship, and Ohio State hands a defeat to Iowa, champs of the Big Ten conference.

Big Dance Slated For MSC Monday

"Rock Around The World" is the motto of the Memorial Student Center Dance Committee this week as they plan for Monday night's Special Dance featuring Johnny Lyon and the "Nu Notes," an "Around the World in 80 Days" theme and 200 feminine guests on the MSC terrace from 8 to 11.

The 200 feminine guests will be on the campus attending the High School Journalism workshop, sponsored by the Department of Journalism and the Department of Education and Psychology, Aug. 10-14. Members of the Summer Directorate will act as hosts for the journalism conference, reports Ann Fleming, Dance Chairman.

"We hope a lot of Aggies will help host the girls who will be attending the dance," Miss Fleming said. Approximately 50 male high school students will also attend the workshop.

The entire MSC terrace will be used for the dance, and will be decorated with "color" from all parts of the world. Persons attending the dance should enter by the outside terrace steps, Miss Fleming added, and in case of rain the dance will be moved to the Assembly Room and Rooms 2A-B-C-D.

"Le Petit Den"—the new version of the Thursday night "Den Dance" in the MSC Dining Room will begin at 8:30 tonight. Music will be by jukebox.

Churches to Hold 'Adventure Week'

Five Methodist Churches of Brazos County will combine for a Christian Adventure Week, Aug. 10-14, Rev. James Argue of the A&M Methodist Church announced this week.

The five churches are First Methodist of College Station, St. Paul's, St. Luke's, and Alexander.

A kickoff swimming party at Briarcrest Country Club will be held Saturday, Aug. 8, from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. Area junior high youths are welcome to attend the swimming party and the Adventure Week program, Rev. Argue said.

The week, which is for intermediates or junior high school youth, will have the Rev. James T. Garrett of the Temple Methodist Church of Houston as the worship leader each night. Rev. Garrett has served as Intermediate Youth Director in Houston and is well-known for his outstanding work in this field.

Each evening program will begin with a dinner at 5:30 p.m., followed by five quest groups. Ada Rummell will conduct a quest on the subject "Being a Christian at Home." Jarvis Miller's group will consider "Being Christian in our Personal Lives." Carleton Lee and his group will survey "Jesus, Our Leader." "The Way of Jesus" will be the subject of the Rev. Charles Hall and his group. And Lee Duenall will conduct his group on the subject, "Using My Bible."

Following the Quest Group studies, a period of recreation will be held before the evening Worship Service with the Rev. Garrett.

The Adventure Week program will be held at the A. and M. Methodist Church in College Station.

Liaison Officers Aid AF Academy

"United States Air Force Military Academy Liaison Officers throughout the United States have done an outstanding job of recruiting Air Force Academy applicants the past year," Lt. General William E. Hall, Commander of Continental Air Command, said recently.

"The Academy had over 6,000 nominations for the opening class in 1955. The next year nominations dropped and the next two years nominations remained considerably below the desired level. Last year the Candidate Advisory Service was formed to direct the activities of reservists Liaison Officers in a nationwide drive to increase nominations to the Academy.

"Results of this effort are now in, and I am happy to report that the Academy received more nominations than in any previous year including the banner opening year. For the class entering the Academy this summer we have received 6,724 nominations. At the same time our initial review of these nominations indicate the quality of candidates has also increased," said Lt. Gen. Hall.

Col. William S. McCulley, associate professor of mathematics here, is Liaison Representative for the United States Military Academy of the Bryan-College Station area. He began his Air Force service in 1942 as a 6th Air Force chemical officer until March of 1943. This time was spent overseas. During his 6 years of active duty he was stationed at Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma City, Okla.

He has a total of 26 years of reserve duty, 12 of these years in the Air Force Reserve. Before that he was assigned with the U. S. Army Reserve.

Col. McCulley took his Bachelor of Arts degree at the University of Iowa in 1932, his Master of Arts at A&M in 1936, and his Ph.D. at the University of Texas in 1956. His first degree was in chemistry and the latter two in mathematics.

He presently resides at 205 Hensel, Bryan, Texas, along with his wife, Jean. He has three children: two boys; Edward and Michael; a girl, Julia.

Col. McCulley said anyone desiring information for appointment to the United States Air Force Military Academy may reach him at his home address or call VI 6-6311.

MAURICE EVANS CONSIDERS TWIN-BILL

NEW YORK (AP)—Maurice Evans is eyeing a London twin-bill for his next starring Broadway venture. The two plays are "The Dock Brief" and "What Shall We Tell Caroline," by John Mortimer.

Evans previously appeared on Broadway in 1949 in the Terence Rattigan due "The Browning Version" and "Harlequinade," played here last year in a revival of "The Apple Cart."

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Pleased at his treatment on a minor traffic charge, motorist O. Elmer Dieson told Traffic Judge Tom Bergin: "I'd like to give you a nice dish of strawberries from my garden, or some sweet corn when it's ripe." "Heavens no," declined his honor, "the grand jury might get after me."

THREE TEMPTATIONS
FREEMONT, Neb. (AP)—Today's preachers are susceptible to three major temptations, Dr. G. E. Lenski of Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, Calif., told a preaching institute here—"the temptation to shine, the temptation to whine and the temptation to recline."

FIRST THINGS, FIRST
ST. SIMONS ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Betty Lou Roebuck, preparing to leave for a Baptist youth conference, went to a bank to get some travelers' checks. Asked the teller, "What denomination?" Betty, apparently more church-minded than money-minded, replied: "Baptist, of course!"
