

THE BATTALION

COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1959

Activity-Filled Weekend Opens Tonite

Excitement, Action Mark First Night of Aggie Rodeo

... action

... and more action!!

13 Events Carry Show

By TOMMY HOLBEIN Battalion Staff Writer

Action and excitement marked the opening night of the All-Aggie Rodeo with 13 different events carrying the show from start to finish and with outstanding performers showing their worth in the finest rodeo

The events featured bareback bronc riding, tie down roping, ribbon roping, steer wrestling, wild bull riding, girl's barrel race, and in the intramural events, freshmen and upperclassmen's calf scramble greased pig scramble and wild cow saddling.

The Grand Entree of mounted cowboys and cowgirls in Western regalia, led by the U.S. and Texas flags got the show underway.

The first event featured was bareback brone riding, packed with thrills for the audience and spills the riders. Rodney Butler and Ken Beasley tied for first place in this event, followed by Sid Kahla in second place.

Immediately following the baremen intramural pig scramble, where about thirty freshmen were turned loose on six pigs located at the far end of the arena.

mob descended upon the animals, and the first to get a pig across a line at the opposite end of the ground was the winner. Company E, 2nd Brigade came in first in this event, with a time of 28.8 seconds.

freshmen intramural wild cow saddling. Company G, 2nd Brigade He sneke of the various change. came in first with Company D, 2nd that have been made in organiza- concluded the night's business at Ken Cox, civilian yell leader who will be vocalist Dolores Emett; who Brigade, placing second.

Andy Bonds from Baytown in 5.7 the good of A&M seconds for throwing the steer. "In the past at the start of each Second was Rodney Butler in 12.2 had a time of 26 seconds.

The girl's barrel race followed steer wrestling with eight girls

Ribbon roping, an event which involved not only the contestant's required line in 11.4 seconds.

The climax of the rodeo was the third was Everett Farthing.

Ex-Battman Sent To Conally AFB

2nd Lt. Fred A. Meurer, former Tom Butler presented a Parking Force Base in Waco.

Slocum, N.Y., prior to reporting reserved for this purpose. for duty at Connally.

in Corpus Christi.

By Jim Earle

Cadets loaded for Bear-Baylor type ... see story on page four back brone riding came the fresh- 'Good Start This Year'

Zinn Tells Civilian Council Of Progress Made at A&M also be featured on the piano. The dancing will break up around midnight, and the group Battalion Managing Editor tions and the chance to rope again and no serious difficulties have be no seating problems. tonight. Tom Montgomery came arisen," Bennie A. Zinn, told mem- Civilian Chaplain James Manley appreciated.

He spoke of the various changes | Preparations for bonfire work | freshman representative. The steer-wrestling was won by out that these changes were for senting the Corps, told members was also present for the first time. ing Weems' group.

seconds and Brazos Varisco, who had a time of 26 seconds this year I have heard of no real

He also discussed the enrollment from Bryan and Houston racing against time. Gloria Rice and Ann Holiday tied for first place in 19.4 severe drop in enrollment this Holiday tied for first place in 19.4 seconds. Both girls are Bryan students. Both girls are Bryan students we didn't lose, but gained in enrollment, is gratifying.'

Zinn said he believed that the roping skill but his running abil- relations between the Civilian and ity as well, was won by Keith Kid- Corps students were much better well, who roped his calf, got the this year and said that student orribbon off its tail, and crossed the ganization is needed to keep the relations good.

"You as a student government, wild bull riding event and Maurice especially through your dormitor Richards racked up 186 points to ies can help students," he said. "I win first place in the event. Sec- believe that if every student and ond was Kenneth Beasley and staff member thought about how we could help A&M, 95 per cent of our difficulties would be eliminated."

Following Zinn's talk, President Tommy Graham told the councilmen that the Department of Student Affairs is behind the Civilian Student Council and is always After Army School ready to assist the council in its work.

managing editor of The Battalion Committee report. In his report and a graduate of A&M last year, he told of his efforts to get special has been assigned to Connally Air space for the Veterans to park near the YMCA Building to sign Meurer was a journalism major for their GI checks. Butler said and also an ROTC graduate here. he talked with Campus Security He recently completed the U.S. Head Fred Hickman and found Army Information School at Fort that it was impossible to get space

Vice President Roland Dommert His parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. made a report on the seating ar-. Meurer of 618 Cunningham St. rangement for the Baylor game Saturday. He said that the seating went all right at the last home of the various committees that traditional Midnight Yell Practice. game with only a few problems have been established to do bon-"We feel that we have made a occurring. He pointed out that fire work. He told the council-Tie down roping was next with good start at A&M this year in more ushers would be on hand for men that Civilian students are wel- before the Baylor game. They will 10 cowboys competing for elimina- that everyone seems more friendly this game and that there should come to work on the bonfire and move onto the cinder track at 1

in first in the event, with Roger bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Student Countain Chaptain James Mainley bers of the Civilian Chaptain James M that their efforts would be deeply p.m. and will be clear by 1:20.

resentative, and Paul A. Corder, mission will be $2.50 stag or drag.

College Dance Tops Socials

Battalion News Editor The second of four home games—this one with Baylor University—is the occasion for much activity on the A&M campus this weekend.

Beginning Friday night with Cafe Rue Pinalle, and winding up with the All-College Dance in Sbisa Saturday night, the weekend is full from start to finish.

The Texas Woman's University Modern Choir will perform at 8 p. m. tonight in the Ballroom of the Memorial Student Center. The choir is coming here on a tour under the direction of Dr. J. Wilgus Eberly. Their repertoire includes American, Spanish and Scottish folk songs and many others. The concert is open to the public and is sponsored by the MSC Music Com-

Cafe Rue Pinalle will begin at 8 p. m. with the dance and floor show in the traditional style. The Collegiates, a band under the direction of Richard Smith will furnish the music for the dance.

Barbara Halas, Hawaiian dancer from Oahu, and Kathy Harris from McKinney will furnish the entertainment for the evening. Both girls are students at Texas Woman's University. Jerry Brown Aggie freshman from Dallas, will also be featured on the piano. will move to The Grove for the Saturday afternoon the Corps of Cadets will march in to Kyle Field

The A&M-Baylor game gets un-

Lacy and James Waldrop placing second and third.

The next feature, and probably the wildest of the night, was the wildest of the night, was the freeheap intramural wild cow sade.

The next feature, and probably the wildest of the night, was the freeheap intramural wild cow sade.

Total members of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. These new members are Reginald to have outstanding religious guest at the council meeting in speakers on the campus to come purpose, and Paul A. Corder.

Total members of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. These new members are Reginald to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose. Additional content of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. These new members are Reginald to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose. Additional content of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. These new members are Reginald to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose. Additional content of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. These new members are Reginald to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose. Additional content of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. The said that plans are being made to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose. The use of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. The said that plans are being made to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose. The use of the use and activities of the Inter-Faith Chapel. The said that plans are being made to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose the said that plans are being made to have outstanding religious speakers on the campus to come purpose the said that plans are being made to have outstanding religious plans and the council were present last night.

The said that plans are being made to have outstanding religious plans and the council were present last night. The council were pr

Highlighting the performance tion on the campus, and pointed the meeting. Joe Leeper, repre- was recently named to the council, has become well known since join-

Guest of the Corps

Cadet Head Coach Jim Myers, center, re-views the Corps of Cadets with Bill Heye, ner guest in Duncan Dining Hall yesterday Cadet Colonel of the Corps, and Joe Leeper, at noon.