The Aggie baseball team took the game that counted Saturday as they topped the Southern Methodist Mustangs, 16-6 on Kyle Field, but dropped a game to Sam Houston yesterday, 7-6, still on home ground.

The SMU tilt was wide open from the start as nine errors were committed and six pitchers saw action.

Randy Wortham got things started in the seventh inning with his three-run homer. The Cadets went on to score 10 runs in the final innings.

Jerry Wolff, the first of four SMU pitchers, absorbed the loss for the Ponies while Olen Jordan was credited with the win behind the relief of David Pitcock in the fifth.

Yesterday's game with Sam Houston was an 11 inning affair that lasted three and one half hours with a total of 422 pitches being thrown.

Ag Track Team Finishes Second in Houston Tri Meet

HOUSTON (AP)—Rice Institute spurred on by the flying heels of Mickey Hollingshead and Norman Charlton—won its first track meet in four years Saturday in triangular competition with A&M and Louisiana State.

With Hollingshead and Charlton winning four events, the Owls piled up nine first places to score 65½ points while the Aggies were compiling 58½ and LSU 46½.

The favored Tigers never recovered after Carl Seefeld, expected to provide points in the 880 but in the two days, pulled a muscle in the relay's opening event, the 440 relay.

The teams responded with some good performances in the bright sunshine and balmy breezes. The meet also marked the first time Rice had taken LSU and the Aggies in the 10-year history of the series.

Taylor Jones won the quarter mile in 48.6 and the Owl junior sprinter also ran a strong leg in the mile relay. Raymond Davidson, John Fallon, Harry Cherry and Hollingshead combined to run a 41.7 spring relay.

LSU's beautifully-muscled weightman, Ludwig Bandaries, junior transfer from Northwestern Louisiana and Centenary, pitched the shot put 56-6½. Joe Harris took first in the pole vault for LSU with a height of 13-8.

The Aggies scored four firsts and shared in another, a four-way tie in the high jump event. Hollingshead emerged as high point man of the meet, run in a crosswind which in the early part of the afternoon reached 10 miles per hour, with 12½ points.

The junior sprinter from Las Vegas took the baton after Harry Cherry has built a five-yard lead and increased it to 10 yards at the tape of the 440 relay. Then he returned to nip Ralph Fabian, Southeastern Conference 100 and 220 champion, by inches in a 10-flat 100 run against the wind and by a comfortable four yards in a 22.1 220.

Charlton won a neck and neck duel from Dickie Durham in the highs and had less trouble with the Tiger hurdler in the lows. The times were 15 flat and 24.1, both against the wind.

Ronnie Weber, bespectacled Rice distance man, won the mile by 40 yards in a new meet record of 4:20.8, and then came from last to second in the final two laps of the two-mile to edge out Thomas Johnston of the Aggies by two strides.

CHS Tigers Host Huntsville Hornets On Bronco Field

The A&M Consolidated Tigers try to forget a 10-2 drubbing at the hands of the Brenham Cubs when the Bengals entertain the Huntsville Hornets at 4 p.m. on Bronco Field.

Coach Edsel Jones has indicated that he will go with soph right-hander Johnny Williams in an attempt to match the Bengals' 7-2 opening day victory over the Hornets.

SPORT SLANTS

By JOE CALICOATTE

Some folks say Kyle Field's baseball stands are strictly for the birds and for all practical purposes they might as well be. The birds roost in them, build their nest there and come in for refuge from the weather. The remarkable thing about it, they do stick around for the ballgames, which is something that most Aggies can't brag about.

Yesterday was a perfect day for baseball, but most of the Ags must have forgotten about the game because there was only a handful present. Where is all the support the Aggies are famous for? It is understandable that some students have afternoon classes, but they don't last later than 5 and yesterday's game lasted until 6:30.

The baseball team deserves just as much support as anyone else, after all, they are defending the conference championship.

Jim Linnstaedter, one of the top high schoolboy backs in the state, says he will attend A&M next fall. Linnstaedter, from nearby Brenham, said he will attend A&M because he is impressed with the outstanding overall athletic program and wants to study wildlife management.

Coach Jim Myers says that he thinks the Ags have landed the state's two outstanding backs in Linnstaedter and Travis Reagan of Wichita Falls.

The Aggie soccer team defeated Houston United, 5-1, in Herjston Sunday under the coaching of Alfonso Aldape. Coaching takes up plenty of Aldape's time, but he is also the captain of the team. A healthy "hats off" is due to the coach and team for their fine efforts.

Sam Houston's baseball team, as usual, is taking its share of victories from Southwest Conference schools. So far this season they have beaten every SWC school encountered at least once. Their foes have included A&M, SMU, Texas and Rice.

A Campus-to-Career Case History

In the master control room of San Diego TV station KFMB-TV, Max Beere discusses a new studio-transmitter link with chief engineer Charles Abel.

His "temporary" job became a career

Max P. Beere spent two years at the University of Hawaii while with the U. S. Navy, then earned his B.S. degree in Engineering at the University of Utah, where he served as technical lighting director for numerous campus theater and television shows.

On graduating in 1955, he fancied a television career for himself, but felt that, being married, he couldn't afford to serve a TV apprenticeship.

Max had an interview with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company in Los Angeles. "I was offered a position in transmission engineering," he says. "It sounded great—but I really thought of it as a 'temporary' thing until I could get into television."

Max's TV career came sooner than he had hoped. Assigned as telephone company liaison with the TV networks, he was soon surveying microwave relay routes for the "Wide, Wide World" show, and working on "remote" and mobile telecasts from such interesting locations as Death Valley and rocket-launching sites deep in the desert.

In August, 1958, he was transferred to San Diego, where he took on full responsibility for TV-and-radio Special Services. This led to a particularly satisfying assignment in early 1959—the development of a new and successful closed-circuit educational TV system for 18 elementary schools in Anaheim.

"The telephone company really opened my eyes," says Max. "It's a fine place to work, where new ideas are welcomed and recognized and chances for advancement are excellent. I'm sold on it."
