Hamilton Poses Odd Questions In Opening Talk

By ROBERT SOLOVEY

Do you prefer overnight shipping or air mail for your letters? Would you like to be presented to a Royal Court? Do you want the freedom of being married or does the responsibility of being married frighten you? These are a few of the questions taken from national surveys, helped Hamilton select his talk for tonight's forum.

The knowledge of basic likes and dislikes is important in finding the mate and satisfaction of each, he said. The first of five marriage forums was centered with "How Can I Tell If I'm Falling?"

Hamilton divided the topic into parts.

1. How can I be sure of marrying the right person?

2. Why don't I get a divorce in my thirties?

3. Personality factors-courtship-infatuation vs. love.

4. Am I actually ready to marry?

5. What important thing is that you be the right person?

The second forum was discussed with a woman who has been married for 10 years. She said that you have to be the right person, that you have to be the right age, and that it is important to you. The idea is to worry about marrying the right person.

Hamilton's forum is successful and adaptable. He feels that he can be helpful to anyone who is interested in finding the mate and who is ready to discuss family relations with others. He believes that the forum is important in finding the mate and that everyone should be interested in finding the mate.
