

Ag Baseballers Massacre Bulldogs, 16-0

HOME RUN!

Bob Long crosses the plate after slamming one of his two round-trippers against Texas Lutheran Wednesday in Seguin. The Aggies won their third straight by a decisive 16-0 count.

By RICHARD CAMPBELL
The Texas Aggie baseballers gave the Texas Lutheran College Bulldogs what was and is still known as a sound thrashing en route to a 16-0 victory Wednesday.

counter with his usual starting lineup of seniors with Billy Bob Barnett, 6'5", Sonny Benefield, 6'1", Ronnie Peret, 6'9", junior Mike Heitmann, 6'4", and sophomore Steve Niles, 7'.

Peret and Barnett were both on the All-SWC first team while Heitmann was a second team selection. Barnett continues to lead the Aggies in scoring with a 17.4 average while Peret at 16.1, Heitmann is at 14.3, Benefield averages 11.6.

Peret, a native of Plainview, is A&M's top rebounder with 9.7 per contest while Barnett, who hails from Brenham, averages 8.8 rebounds per game.

The biggest individual improvement has been displayed by Niles who enjoyed his finest game of the season against Trinity with 16 rebounds. The big San Antonio center has averaged 6.2 points and 6.4 rebounds.

One of the Aggies' trademarks this season has been a great bench headed by senior Harry Bostic, a 6-6 senior, junior Bill Brown, 6-1, sophomores Bill Cooksey, 6-2, and Chuck Smith, 6-4.

The two winners of tonight's Midwest Regional contest will play at 3:15 p.m. Saturday for a ticket to the national finals in Louisville, Ky. The Midwest champions is matched against the West champions, probably UCLA, in the first round finals.

Tonight's two losing teams will battle for third place in a preliminary game Saturday at 1 p.m.

A&M slammed out 19 hits, including three home runs off the hapless Bulldog mound corps. A&M football star Bob Long clubbed two of the homers and another footballer, junior Barney Harris laced the other.

Winning pitcher Doug Rau gave up but one hit in six innings against the Bulldogs, who became the Aggies' third victim of the young season.

Charles Kelly, a freshman hurler from West Columbia, took over the chores for Rau and allowed the Seguin team but four hits the rest of the way.

This win was the third straight for the fast-starting Aggies, all of them non-conference games.

They defeated Houston Baptist in the season opener Friday, 6-5, and handed the Sam Houston State Bearcats a 9-8 thumping Monday afternoon in Huntsville.

The Aggies will host the same Texas Lutheran club Friday afternoon on Kyle Field and then St. Mary's University of San Antonio comes to College Station Saturday.

Ag Sports Car Club Wins Many Trophies

A late starting Texas A&M Sports Car Club caravan arrived in Austin just before the close of registration for the Spokers Parking Lot Grand Prix autocross last Sunday and left early with most of the trophies.

Four of the Aggie drivers placed in the top eight overall, taking top time of the day, two firsts, a second, and two thirds in the big event which featured almost fifty cars in eleven classes.

George Eby drove his Lotus Elan past a fully race prepared, Ford-powered Sunbeam Tiger for the B&C production crown and his time of 56.13 was good enough for top time of the day. Also entered in this class was John Brewer who drove his 327 Corvette into third place with a very respectable time of 1:01.29, which was good for seventh overall.

President Alan Weckerling placed third in C sedan with a time of 1:07.16. He was beaten by one of the sharpest Ford Mustangs in Texas and a brand new Renault R10 sedan.

The Aggies completely dominated H production with Tom Riley taking first in class in his MG Midget with a time of 1:01.03. George Martin was second in his Sprite with a time of 1:01.83. These times were good for sixth and eighth overall.

Patsy Eby drove the Lotus to a time of 1:02.40 in the ladies event but was knocked out of the standings when it was discovered that she had tipped over a pylon. There were some sad faces at the awards ceremony when the Longhorn Club had to part with all those trophies which were going to A&M. Many regular Austin drivers were left with only a good lesson in driving techniques.

Anyone interested in the T.A.M.S.C.C. or any form of sports car activities is asked to attend the next meeting, to be held March 20 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 107 of the Military Science Building.

Ags' Ron Peret Picked For Tilt

Texas A&M's Ronnie Peret, a 6'9" postman from Plainview, has been chosen to play in the National Association of Basketball Coaches' East-West All-Star game on March 29 in Indianapolis, Ind.

Peret was selected on every one of the All-Southwest Conference teams and was instrumental in leading the Aggies to the SWC crown. He finished the year with a 16.3 average and led the conference in field goal percentage with a 60.8 mark.
