A Legal Rights Commission on campus has been proposed by the Senate which would provide students with legal advice or provide loans to pay lawyer fees.

A Legal Rights Commission proposal of professors, students and others who have a knowledge of law and are present to assist the student in his legal needs to appear.

The secretary made the statement in opening a 'listening con­ference' for the new girls on campus and followed it with an informal get-together last Thursday to answer questions the girls had and offer an oppor­tunity for the new girls to meet each other.
