Drug war

Kidnapped narcotics agent found dead

Associated Press

MEXICO CITY — Ambassador John Gavin officially confirmed Thursday that one of two bodies found in plastic bags on a Guadalajara ranch was that of kidnapped U.S. narcotics agent Enrique Camarena Salazar.

"It is very painful for me to have to announce officially that one of the bodies ... is indeed Enrique Camarena," Gavin told a news conference. Medical specialists had determined earlier that the other body found on the ranch, where police shot it out with alleged drug dealers, was that of Camarena's pilot, Alfredo Zavala Avelar.

Both men were abducted a month ago in Guadalajara, which is considered a center of the Mexican drug trade.

Mexican police went to the ranch, about 60 miles north of Guadalajara, Saturday looking for clues for Salazar, 37, and Zavala. They were greeted by gunfire and five people were killed, including a police officer.

The bodies were found, in the bags in a field, when police went back to the ranch on a tip Tuesday night.

The men were kidnapped separately Feb. 7 in Guadalajara. Camarena, an agent of the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, was abducted within sight of the U.S. consulate and Zavala was seized by gunmen while on his way to the airport.

U.S. officials say there are as many as 75 major drug traffickers and 18 large gangs in Mexico, and much of their activity is centered in Guadalajara.

Discovery of the bodies ended nearly a month of frustration for U.S. officials, which arose initially from a slow response by Mexican authorities that brought some calls for sanctions against Mexico.

Gavin indicated at a news conference Wednesday, however, that joint anti-drug efforts will continue.

"We have an ongoing war," he said. "There are losses in this war. As we continue prosecuting the war against illegal drugs, there is a very real possibility that our own agents may once again suffer these kinds of attacks."

Securities company crash stops Beaumont bond sale

Associated Press

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Beaumont, Tx., has been forced to postpone a $32 million bond sale in the wake of the billion-dollar collapse of a Fort Lauderdale securities company.

"We've never seen anything like this before," said Charles Harper, director of the regional Securities and Exchange Commission office in Miami.

The Beaumont bond sale had been set for next week but the city was placed on a credit watch because it had $21 million invested in ESM Government Securities, Inc.

Pompano Beach could lose $11 million, or one third of its total investments, while Tamarac has $7 million invested, or 40 percent of its total.

"There are some municipalities that can't meet payroll or face other horrible situations," said ESM's court-appointed receiver, Thomas Tew.

He told The Miami Herald that while ESM ran up extensive trading losses since 1977, it was loaning $30 million to company officers.

Officers also made more than $250,000 a year, gave themselves a million-dollar bonus last year, and leased Jaguar and Mercedes Benz automobiles, the newspaper reported.

A federal judge ordered the company closed Monday after auditors found ESM had borrowed $1.6 billion from its customers, loaned out $1.3 billion, and did not have the $300 million difference.

COLLEGE COSTS ARE GOING UP. BUT SO IS THE ARMY COLLEGE FUND.

Tuition, books, lab fees, college living expenses — all seem to be climbing relentlessly. Well, here's some good news from the Army. Today's Army College Fund is climbing too. You can now accumulate over $25,000 for college, if you qualify.

What's more, you'll study, learn and become proficient in a useful skill. It could be a skill with so wide an application in both military and civilian life that it might help you decide what to take in college.

If you're determined to go on to college, but you don't know where the money is coming from, pick up an Army College Fund booklet from your local recruiter. It offers several options you'll want to investigate.
