McCaskill shuts down Rangers in 4-3 win

The White Sox have won eight of their last 10

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Kirk McCaskill picked up his first victory of the spring, allowing three hits over two innings as the Chicago White Sox edged the Texas Rangers 4-3 Thursday.

McCaskill hadn't pitched since March 20 when he gave up two runs and four hits in four innings against New York. But he allowed only an unearned run in the first against Texas for his first victory in five appearances.

The White Sox, who now have won eight of their last 10, took the lead for good with two runs in the second when Lyle Mouton scored on Darren Lewis' grounder to short and Chris Snopce scored on Chad Kreuter's grounder to short. Chicago led 4-1 when Norberto Martin scored on a wild pitch by loser Darren Oliver in the third. Snopce then drove in Mouton with a single as Oliver gave up four runs and three walks in four innings.

Damon Buford cut the lead to 4-2 with a RBI single in the sixth and the Rangers threatened in the ninth when Buford started the inning with a double off the left-field wall. He scored on Craig Worthington's single.

But Luis Ortiz fled out to center and Rich got Kurt Stillwell to ground out to third for his first save.

Canucks put coach on Ley-away, hire Quinn

BURNABY, B.C. (AP) — Rick Ley was fired today as coach of the Vancouver Canucks, with general manager Pat Quinn taking over behind the bench for the rest of the season.

"As of this morning I'm the coach of the hockey team," Quinn told a news conference.

The move came the morning after another disastrous performance at GM Place when the Canucks lost 6-2 to the Toronto Maple Leafs.

Despite one of the NHL's highest payrolls, the Canucks have a record of 29-32-15.

Their home record is 13-18-7 and they are tied for sixth and seventh in the Western Conference, just one point ahead of eighth-place Toronto.

Ley, 47, served three years as the Canucks assistant coach before becoming the team's
