Headquarters Corps of Cadets
Agricultural & Mechanical College of Texas
College Station, Texas.

Sept. 25th, 1916.

Each Lieutenant Colonel and Major will room with their organizations.

2. In the assignment of privates to organizations, those who belonged to the corresponding organization last year, and who first register, will be given preference, but the number of each class assigned to a company will be approximately the following: Seniors, three; Juniors, five; Sophomores and 2nd year two year students, nine. Freshmen and all first year students as may be necessary. Cadets excused from military duty for any reason, except fifth year men, will be assigned for convenience, to the Machine Gun Company and also cadets excused from regular drill on account of working during the drill hour. Other selected cadets as may be desired will also be assigned.

In the assignment of rooms, the Colonel comes first. Captains of Companies next, Field Officers next, Company Officers next, Commissioned Staff next, the remainder as in preceeding years. The Captain of the organization will make the assignments, making sure that his first sergeant will have a desirable room. Staff and non-comissioned staff officers will be so distributed so that there will not be more than two quartered with any organization.
