
Post Office Hours.

While no absolute hours for opening the campus post office can be set, the following general plan will be in effect:

The window will be open mornings as soon as the mail is distributed, about 9:30 o'clock, and from that hour until noon.

The window will open from 1 to 2 o'clock and again immediately after the mail is distributed, about 2:30. The window will be open then until 4:30 p. m.

POSTMASTER.

Items for the Daily Bulletin may either be left in the wire basket on the desk of the publicity agent, 113 Main Building, or brought to the print shop. There is no charge for the "Want Lost and Found" ads.

The Home of Correct Clothes for Men . . .

You are always welcome

*Brandon &
Lawrence
. . . Bryan*

Season Athletic Tickets.

For the benefit of freshmen, the following notice is printed:

A student coupon book which may be purchased for six dollars entitles the purchaser to admission to all intercollegiate games in football, basketball baseball and track held on the campus. These books are now being offered by the captain of your company and should be purchased now. The coupons call for admission to about $15.00 worth of contests throughout the year and mean the saving of nine dollars.

Buy a coupon book today and support your athletic teams.—The Athletic Council.

FOUND—Gold link cuff button with initial F. M.—Conway, Co. E 1st Reg., top floor Mitchell.

"FELLOWS"

Don't forget, in arranging your room, that BOYETT'S STORE has a complete line of WINDOW SHADES, at a price of 50 cents each.

W. C. BOYETT, Prop.
North Main Street
College Station