
Training Corps Agreement.

An error occurred in stating that the paragraph quoted below is a reserve officer's agreement. According to Captain Muller, the excerpt represents a Training Corps agreement for seniors and juniors only:

"In consideration of commutation of subsistence to be furnished me according to law, I hereby agree to continue in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps during the remainder of my course in the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, to devote five hours per week during such period to the military prescribed, and to pursue the course of camp training during such
