Pictorial Annuals Shipped.

The Pictorial Annuals were shipped by express from Philadelphia last Monday. They will be delivered the last of this week. It is hoped that every man will have his money ready, in order to facilitate quick delivery. This is necessary if we get all of them delivered before the Christmas vacation begins.

M. B. GIBSON,
Editor.

Special to Houston over H. & T. C. leaves here at five-thirty p. m., Thursday 21st, making connections with all trains there.

SWEATERS ordered by "Peg" Woodson a few weeks ago are now here. Have a few extras too. See me tonight at Pfeuffer No. 9.

LOST:—An R. V. pin in Austin Thanksgiving day at the Texas-A. and M game. Initials "H. A. S." on back. Finder please return to F. L. Bramlette, 15 Ross.

STRAYED:—My Mechanical Drawing book and engineer's scale. Finder please notify J. P. Read, Leggett 71.

H. & T. C. will run a special to Ft. Worth December 21. All steel cars. Make reservations now. W. F. Davis.

LOST:—An Elgin hunting case watch with man's picture in front. Had no crystal, and had a boy's scout watch fob. Last seen at Vet. Science. Reurn to 59 Leggett for liberal reward.
