
WANT, LOST, FOR SALE, ETC.

LOST—A Chem. book which bears the name of J. V. Will. Please return it to No. 10 Foster.

Several Thanksgiving Dance programs are left on hand. If you want one for a souvenir, go to C. O. Denning's room, 37 Milner, today or tomorrow.

Those who have money for band concert tickets will please turn in the amount to me at once.

M. Blankfield.

Cadet who has gun No. 197427 will please bring it to No. 8 Ross and exchange it for the right one.

LOST:—A "Farm Management," book. D. H. Kiber's name in it. Return it to 73 Milner.

LOST—A Kimball's Physics. Return to No. 90 Milner. Reward.

W. D. Bains.

I have some good practical Christmas suggestions here, in the shape of Wear Ever Aluminum cooking utensils; your married friends will appreciate such gifts.

Frank Halsey.

23 Austin.

LOST:—A Wesley's handbook. Please notify me at 92 Leggett.

N. G. Crocker

LOST:—A raincoat with the name Staerker in it. Kindly return it to "Dunny" McMurray, 24 Goodwin.

LOST:—A Chem 1a notebook which dears my name.—O. L. Neyland, 7 Goodwin.

Special arrangements for cadets leaving College December 21st, with special tourist sleepers for Waco, Ft. Worth, San Antonio and other points beyond. Tourist car for Waco will be set out and may be occupied until 7:00 a. m. Tourist cars for Ft. Worth will arrive in time to make connections with out-bound trains. Tourist car for San Antonio will also make connections for points beyond. Chair cars and coaches will run thru to Austin, San Antonio and Ft. Worth.

Tourist sleepers will be open for occupancy, at College Station, at 9:00 p. m.

For reservations and reduced rates to Ft. Worth and points beyond apply to F. W. Judd, 63 Mitchell.

For reservations, etc., to Waco apply to F. A. Crow, 77 Milner.

For reservations, etc., to Austin, San Antonio apply to C. C. Halbedl, 27 Goodwin.

Newly ballasted road bed
First class equipment.

M. S. Dew, Agent

Thursday is "Get away Day." We have but two more days in which to remind you that the "Homeless Ones" are carrying out a "watchful waiting" policy. Be a "Good Fellow." Send all Christmas packages to me to insure prompt distribution and consumption. We draw the line on nothing—to eat.

Joe C. R. H. Rogers,
Quartermaster for "Hang-overs"
Headquarters:

Ike Ashburn's Office.