Company Basketball.

The company basketball season starts Saturday, February 27, and the team in each company will play every other company in its battalion two games for the battalion championship. (There will be one team from each company.) The champions of the battalions will play for the regimental championship in their regiment, then each champion company of the 1st and 2nd regiments will play for the corps championship.

All company games will be played on outdoor courts. Company goals will be erected between Prof. Bagley's residence and the gymnasium unless other arrangements are made.

Father Gleissner will say mass this morning at the usual hour, in Room 400 Main Building, for the convenience of cadets and campus residents.

For many a jocund spring has passed away
And many a flower has blossomed, to decay
And human life, still hastening to a close,
Finds in the worthless dust its last repose.
