

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II College Station, Texas, Wednesday, January 17, 1917. No. 89.

To Nominate Battalion Officers.

Nominations for editor and business manager of the Battalion, and for chief yell leader will be received at 96 Leggett until 6 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday, January 24. Each nomination must bear the signature of twenty eligible voters. This will be a corps election.

C. T. Trickey,
Chairman.

Attention, Juniors.

Nominations for editor and for business manager of the 1918 Longhorn will be received at 96 Leggett until 6 p. m. Wednesday January 24.

J. W. Williams,
Ch'm'n, Junior Election Com'tee.

C. S. Tatum, associate professor of Textile Engineering, who has been in Georgia for the past three or four weeks at the bedside of his sick daughter returned to College Monday. His child is better.

LOST:--An Ingersoll watch, marked "Rabbi, A and M. fish, 1916." Aluminum fob attached. Return to Bertschler, 38 Leggett

LOST--A small watch chain, on military walk.--R. Montgomery, 72 Mitchell

Hort. 21, Section 103.

Lesson in Plant Propagation for Thursday, January 18, will include pages 1 to 147.

F. W. Hensel, Jr.

Northwest Texas Club Men.

If you want your picture to appear in the Longhorn group, you will have to pay up immediately. Call at Pfeuffer 25.

Textile Engineers.

At T. E. Building at 7:30 this evening, there will be a meeting of all textile students. Special lecture on inspection trips, by Prof. Bagley.--I. G. Moore, Pres.

Noted Lecturer Coming.

Sumas MacManus, one of the greatest lecturers of the country is coming to College Station February 9, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Full details will be given later.

The superintendent of the various substations of the Experiment Station system will meet here today for the sixth annual school of instruction. A program bearing on station problems and efficiency will be carried out. The visitors will remain through Friday.