Military College Graduates.

Capt. Muller has submitted the following, to be run in successive issues of the "Daily Bulletin:"

"The Marine Corps was largely increased at the last session of Congress in accordance with the provisions of the Naval Appropriation Bill approved by the President on August 29, 1916. This bill provided that the Corps should consist of 14,981 enlisted men, 40 warrant officers, and 597 commissioned officers, including both the line and the staff, and that the officers should be distributed in the various grades as follows:

"1 Major General Commandant, 4 Brigadier Generals, 19 Colonels, 24 Lieutenant Colonels, 68 Majors, 180 Captains, 150 First Lieutenants, 151 Second Lieutenants.

"Of these Officers 9 are for duty with the Adjutant and Inspector's Department; 30 for duty with the Quartermaster's Department; and 9 for duty with the Paymaster's Department; the law provides also that the head of each staff department shall have the rank of brigadier general while so serving.

"The above-mentioned number of officers involved an increase over the number previously author-

Second Term.

The second term will begin February 8. On that day class work will be suspended on account of registration.

All students who can do so are requested to take out their assignment cards and get them signed in the interval between January 25 and February 8.

For the purpose of facilitating the matter of getting these cards signed, Heads of Departments have been requested to remain in their offices during office hours February 5, 6, 7, 8. For the rules relating to registration, see paragraphs 82, 83, 84, of the Blue Book.
