

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II. College Station, Texas, Wednesday, January 24, 1917. No. 95.

Excess of Hours.

Under paragraph 110 of the Blue Book, no student may take more than four term hours of work in excess of the amount prescribed in his curriculum. Exceptions to this rule can be made only by the Faculty. The regular meetings of the Faculty are held on the first and third Wednesdays of each month.

It is not likely that requests for exceptions to the rule in paragraph 110 will be approved after February 7.

This statement is made for the information and guidance of those concerned.

CHARLES PURYEAR,
Dean.

Corps Dance Saturday.

The first corps dance will be given Saturday night at the gymnasium. This will be a dance for the corps of cadets and members of all classes are expected to take part.

Make your date at once. No stags allowed.

All Sophomores, or men who are in the '19 class, are eligible to pay their quarter on the Longhorn plates. Come across, fellows.
President.

Agricultural Education 6.

Students desiring to take Agricultural Education 6—High School Agriculture—who find the hour announced in next term's schedule conflicts with a subject already elected will please leave their names with schedule desired for next term at the Agricultural Education office this week. An effort will be made to arrange an hour to accommodate the largest possible number.

Basketball Tonight.

At the gym. tonight at 7:30, A. and M. meets Daniel Baker. The Presbyterians are here for two games. Between halves tonight there will be a wrestling match of fifteen minutes duration.

The faculty gym. class will meet after the game tonight. Bring paraphernalia.

Engineering Faculty.

The regular meeting of the Engineering Faculty will be held today at 4:10 p. m.

D. W. SPENCE,
Dean of Engineering.

LOST:—A bunch of small keys for trunk, on a triangular ring. Reward for their return to Frank Halsey, 23 Austin.