

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II College Station, Texas, Friday, January 26, 1917 No 97.

Moving Pictures Tonight.

Mr. Wickemeyer, of Dallas, will deliver a lecture in connection with the moving picture illustrating the use of motor trucks in road construction and maintenance. This exhibition will be held at 7:30 tonight in the Chapel. No admission charged. Everybody invited.

Cadets are permitted to attend the above by reporting "ALL RIGHT" to sentinel for that purpose.

C. H. MULLER.
Commandant.

Chinese Student Registered.

F. F. Kan, of Kwong Tung, China, registered yesterday for postgraduate work in the study of cotton. A. and M.'s only Chinese student is a graduate of the Oregon State Agricultural College. After he completes his work here, Mr. Kan intends to return to his native country to engage in the cotton industry.

36 to 0 Score Made Yesterday.

In the last game with Daniel Baker, yesterday afternoon, A. and M. scored 36 to Daniel Baker's 0.

The next games will be with Baylor on the 29th and 30th.

Basket ball 2

The News in Brief.

Fear is felt for foreigners in Mexico after U. S. troops leave. Chinese can cross line.

Japanese leader of Constitutional party attacked by assassins.

Appropriation bill for U. S. fortifications on coast defense calls for sixty million dollars.

Submission lost in first test in House of Representatives.

Earthquake killed fifty in Bali Island, in the Malay Archipelago. Homes and factories destroyed.

General Pershing ready to march out of Mexico. Truck trains started.

Carranza will be appealed to protect foreigners in the district that has been occupied by Major General Pershing's forces.

Baylor wins from Decatur Baptist College. Texas defeats Southwestern, score 34 to 13.

Corps Dance Saturday.

The first announcement of the Corps Dance Saturday night should be changed to read "there will be no stag dancing" instead of "no stags allowed."

The college orchestra will furnish the music. The floor is in good condition and a good time is promised.

M. B. Gibson.