

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II College Station, Texas, Thursday, February 1, 1917. No. 102

Cast Your Vote Today.

No poll tax will be assessed against those who vote in today's election. Important offices are to be filled and every eligible voter should cast his ballot. The following tickets will be voted on:

Corps Election Ticket

For Editor of the Battalion:

Taliaferro, C. L.

Williams, J. W.

For Manager of the Battalion:

Neyland, O. L.

For Chief Yell Leader:

Starnes, J. L.

Moore, D. S.

Junior Election Ticket.

For Editor of the Longhorn:

Morgan, G. B.

For Manager of the Longhorn:

Knickerbocker, H. C.

Judd, F. W.

McLean, A. R.

For Art Editor of Longhorn:

Prime, W. F.

Born, J.

For Athletic Editor of Longhorn:

Seymour, S. K.

Schedule Notice.

Schedule changes have been made for sections 30, 31, and 32. See Bulletin Board.

Schedule Committee.

Agricultural Seniors.

Those agricultural students that are desiring to enroll for Agricultural Education 404, Agricultural Extension and Demonstration, and are unable to take the subject at eleven o'clock Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, will please leave at the office of the Agricultural Education Department, a schedule of the other subjects desired.

This request is made so that a second section can be organized at such a time as will accommodate those students desiring the course.

That Wise Old Bird.

Somewhere on the Navasot, January 31.—A. and M. cadets met, conquered and carted home, bag, baggage and all; Rice Institute students who, early this morning, captured their owl from the College armory, according to reports received here. Institute boys held captive at A. and M. were well treated, receiving meals, lodging, and even barber work, free. The owl was burned.

LOST—An express money order for $50.00 drawn in favor of J. F. Blanton, 59 Goodwin.