Vol. II College Station, Texas, Friday, February 2, 1917. No. 103.

Freshman Algebra and Trig.

In the second term, the first term's work in Algebra (Mathematics 101) and Trigonometry (Mathematics 103) will be repeated. The new courses will be known as Mathematics 112 (Algebra), and Mathematics 114 (Trigonometry.)

Section A will be scheduled at 9 a. m., M. W. F., for Algebra and 9 a. m., T. Th. S., for Trigonometry.

Certain students will be required to drop Mathematics 102, 104 and to take the new courses. Others who may desire to take the new courses should make written application.

CHARLES PURYEAR,
Dean.

Great Lecturer Coming.

Sumas Mac Manus, the great lecturer on Irish folkware, will appear at the Y. M. C. A. on February 8. Mac Manus is full of wit and humor, and a treat is awaiting the College Station public

Notice.

All Agronomy 5 practice work must be in by Monday evening, February 5th, 1917.

C. A. Wood.

Election Results.

As a result of yesterday's corps election, J. W. Williams is to be next year's editor of the Battalion and O. L. Neyland, business manager. Dudley S. Moore is to be chief yell leader.

The juniors chose the following named men for the Longhorn staff:

G. B. Morgan, editor-in-chief.

H. C. Knickerbocker, business manager.

W. F. Prime, art editor.

S. K. Seymour, athletic editor.

Picture Show.

There will be a free moving picture show in chapel tonight. One reel shows the manufacture of electric lights and the other two show the manufacture of transformers. All are invited to attend.

Cross Country Run.

Great interest is being shown by the track men in the cross country runs. For such faithful enthusiasm, every man deserves a prize. If you have not seen the silver cups, presented by Waldrop, Haswell, and Caldwell, you can do so at the Y. M. C. A.
