

THE DAILY BULLETIN

Published daily (except Mondays) by the A. and M. Print Shop for circulation among students, faculty, and campus residents.

Vol. II College Station, Texas, Tuesday, February 6, 1917. No. 106.

1917 Football Schedule.

Following is A. and M.'s football schedule for the 1917 schedule:

October 5—Austin College at College Station.

October 12—Dallas University at College Station.

October 22 Southwestern at College Station.

October 27 L. S. U. at Beaumont.

November 2—Tulane at College Station.

November 10—Baylor at Waco.

November 20—Texas University at College Station.

November 29—Rice at Houston.

To Form New Company.

In order to meet the needs of certain students, student laborers and members of the band, I desire to form a company for drill and instruction to drill at some hour other than four to five. These cadets can then be excused from the regular drill and go about their work. In order to determine upon the hour, I wish to have cadets involved to meet me at the "Y" Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock.

C. H. MULLER.

LOST: Agronomy 3. Note book. Reward for its return to 29 Milner.—G. M. Bittle.

The News in Brief.

President Wilson wants decks cleared for action.

Germany will make no change in order to submarine commanders.

United States fighting strength is 10,535,940.

American ships arrive and depart from English ports.

Ex President Taft advocates conscription.

Interned German gunboat fired at Honolulu.

Austrian ambassador may be given his passports shortly.

Agricultural Engineering 26.

Those who can arrange to take Agricultural Engineering 26 theory at 8:00 on Wednesdays and Fridays, and practice on Saturday mornings will report to Mr. Gee's office today to sign up for the course.

Army Examinations.

All those intending to take the examinations for a commission in the army meet in Room 67 Leggett after dinner today. This is for the purpose of arranging for a course in history in preparation for the required examination in that subject.