

---

---

Faculty Members and Officers.

The Y. M. C. A. is presenting a great lecturer, Sumas Mac Manus, this Friday night at 7:45, in the Main Auditorium. A lecture of wit and humor. Price 25c.

LOST: A set of drawing instruments, with the name J. B. Russell stamped on each instrument. Please notify 91 Leggett.

Yesterday, while in the Library, somebody picked my cap by mistake. It bears my name on the front and is slightly old. Notify me if you know about it.—R. Pagan-Ortiz. 72 Milner.

WANTED: Types and Breeds of Farm Animals," by Plumb; "Milk and its Products," by Wing.—P. E. Little, 4 Goodwin.

---

---

Soft Collars

New Shipment
Just Arrived

BRANDON
AND LAWRENCE

Edwin Clapp and
Bostonian Shoes

WEBB BROS.

Bryan

Edwin Clapp and
Bostonian Shoes

---

---

Guard Detail.

For February 9, 1917.

Officer of the Day:

Cadet Lieut. Blankfield, M.

Officer of the Guard:

Cadet Lieut. Black, R. C.

---

'15 Graduate Electrocuted.

Notice of the death of B. H. Dickie, '15, at Schnectady, N. Y. was received here Tuesday night — Dickie was electrocuted. No further particulars of his death could be learned. G. D. Dickie, D 1st, left for Woodson, their home, where the burial will be.

---

Attention, Students.

An extra issue of the Daily Bulletin is out this morning. It has important announcements. Read it.